I like comparing the vocation to the ordained ministry to the “treasure hidden in a field” (13:44). It is truly a treasure that God places from the beginning in the hearts of some men; those whom He has chosen and called to follow Him in this special state of life. This treasure, which needs to be discovered and brought to light, is not meant to “enrich” just someone. The one called to the ministry is not the “master” of his vocation, but the administrator of a gift that God has entrusted to him for the good of all people, rather, of all men and women, including those who have distanced themselves from religious practice or do not profess faith in Christ. At the same time, the whole of the Christian community is the guardian of the treasure of these vocations, destined for His service, and it must be ever more conscious of the duty to promote them, welcome them and accompany them with affection.

God never ceases to call some to follow and serve Him in the ordained ministry. We too, however, must do our part, through formation, which is the response of man, of the Church to God’s gift, that gift that God gives through vocations. It means guarding and fostering vocations, that they may bear ripe fruit. They are “diamonds in the rough” ready to be carefully polished with respect for the conscience of the candidates and with patience, so that they may shine among the People of God.

On the northeast corner of the campus, behind the sign for the Center for Pastoral Leadership, there is a beautiful statue of Mary holding her beloved Child. That statue which graces the cover of this catalog depicts a joyful Mother who holds her Child with love and presents her Child to all who come before her. This statue is Saint Mary Seminary’s “treasure hidden in the field”. It can be easily missed because no road or sidewalk leads to this shrine. Yet Mary and her Son are there, quietly watching, guarding, protecting. Saint Mary has been the patron of the seminary for more than 170 years. Her intercessory prayers and maternal care inspire all those who come to open their hearts to the Lord and answer their vocational call.

“I like comparing a vocation to the ordained ministry to the “treasure hidden in a field” (Matt 13:44). A vocation is truly a treasure that God places in the hearts of some men, those whom He has chosen and called to follow Him in this special state of life. This treasure needs to be discovered and brought to light. It is not meant to personally “enrich” someone. The one called to priesthood is not the “master” of his vocation, but the administrator or steward of a gift that God has entrusted to him for the good of all men and women, including those who have distanced themselves from religious practice or do not profess faith in Christ. At the same time, the whole of the Christian community is the guardian of the treasure of these vocations, destined for His service, and it must be ever more conscious of the duty to promote them, welcome them, and accompany them with affection.”

(Pope Francis, October 3, 2014)

Lay men and women, and consecrated religious, too, find Mary the treasure of this seminary community. They seek to deepen their understanding of theology and to hone their leadership skills for ministry. These graduate students enrich our learning community with their array of personal and professional gifts, and especially their commitment to the Church.

It is with gratitude that, as President-Rector, I express our thanks to Bishop Perez and all in the Diocese of Cleveland who sustain this seminary campus through their financial and prayerful support. Thanks to all of you, Saint Mary Seminary continues its mission to form men for the ordained priesthood and to serve as a center for the Diocese for advanced theological studies to prepare men and women for ecclesial service to the people of God in our local Church and beyond.

May Mary, Mother of the Church and our patron, be with us always, leading us to Christ, the Treasure and Shepherd of our hearts!
Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology at the Center for Pastoral Leadership is located in Western Lake County in Wickliffe, Ohio, 14 miles from the center of Cleveland. Euclid Avenue (U.S. Route 20) runs along the front of the campus on the north; Bishop Road borders it on the east. Proximity to several major interstates (I-90, I-71, I-271) makes the Seminary easily accessible. The campus is about 20 minutes away from cultural, civic, entertainment, and shopping areas in the Greater Cleveland area. Many local conveniences are near the campus.

The focal point of the Center is the modern tau-shaped Chapel, directly beneath the tower, where daily liturgy is celebrated. Designed to hold 300 people, the Chapel contains a pipe organ and is enhanced by 26 stained glass windows.

The Seminary residence area includes private, single-occupancy rooms with accommodations for 90 full-time students. Students have access to laundry facilities, entertainment and refreshment centers, a dining room, lounge, and exercise/fitness areas. A field house, separate from the main building, contains handball courts in addition to two basketball courts with spectator seating. An outdoor swimming pool is located on the campus grounds.

The Bruening-Marotta Library
The Bruening-Marotta Library holds more than 82,000 volumes and 900 units of audiovisual media, and subscribes to approximately 240 current periodicals. In addition, the Library is a member of OhioLINK, a consortium of 121 academic libraries in Ohio. Through OhioLINK Seminary students have access to nearly 50 million books and Library materials, plus access to more than 150 electronic research databases, including the ATLA Religion Database.

Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology of the Diocese of Cleveland prepares candidates for the Roman Catholic priesthood while also serving as a center for advanced theological education.

Institutional Convictions
These convictions are valued traits cultivated with our learning community that serve as desired outcomes across all of our degree programs:

Christian Discipleship — the transformation of each person into the image of Christ in response to the word of God and the Church’s tradition.

Formation — the renewal of the mind and heart for personal, professional and ecclesiastical growth.

Theological Thinking — the ability to think with the Church through the skills of analysis and critical reflection.

Communication — the ability to articulate theological ideas.

Collaboration — the development and use of personal and interpersonal skills, shared gifts in ministry, for the service of community building.

Vision Statement
Building on its one hundred seventy-year-old tradition of preparing men for the ordained priesthood, and responding to the contemporary needs of the Church, Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology continues to form men for ordination to the Catholic priesthood so they may participate in the Church’s mission. As a partner in cooperation with the entities of the Center for Pastoral Leadership, we strive to collaborate in the formation of ministerial leaders. We accept the formation challenges of ongoing spiritual growth, and theological and ministerial development for the service of God and neighbor in the Catholic tradition. In the spirit of the Gospel, we provide educational opportunities and experiences for students to embrace the poor and disadvantaged with Christian peace, hope, and generosity within the local and global communities.

Accountability of Mission and Ongoing Assessment
To assess its primary mission, the Seminary is committed to ongoing evaluation of its priestly formation program (M.Div. Degree program) in view of the changing demands of diocesan and parish ministry as well as the varying intellectual and emotional needs of succeeding generations of seminarians. Assessment takes place on a yearly basis through such instruments as course and instructor evaluation, faculty and peer reviews of student formational growth, exit interviews and committee meetings to discuss and review policy and programmatic structures. In addition, an Institutional Assessment Committee collects data and facilitates discussion among the faculty and students for the ongoing review of degree programs and their relationship to the mission of the Seminary. This committee guides the faculty in assessing institutional outcomes and convictions. Such supervision includes the development of syllabi and rubrics that correspond to degree outcomes, the monitoring of criteria used in student assessment, and the coordination of faculty assessment workshops. The committee also reviews degree programs, monitors the M.Div. Portfolio that provides data for yearly seminarian evaluations, reviews with the Academic Dean the course evaluations, and synthesizes data for the Fall and Spring faculty workshops. Every year graduates complete an exit interview and every five years are mailed questionnaires to provide feedback from the field in order to update and enhance constituent needs.

With regard to the accountability of leadership and mission, every three years the Board of Trustees reviews the President-Rector and evaluates its own work as a board. The Seminary also conducts focus groups with pastors who have worked with our recent graduates in the field of ministry to assess how the Seminary might continue to address the needs of the local Church.

Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology serves Northeastern Ohio as a unique resource for graduate Roman Catholic theological studies. As its secondary mission to a wider ecclesial community the Seminary offers the Master of Arts degree and the Doctor of Ministry degree. The participation of diverse learners in these academic programs introduces a healthy pluralism into the Seminary’s community life. Seminarians, priests, deacons, lay ecclesial ministers, ministers from other faith communities, as well as adult learners create a broader learning environment that incorporates lived and ministerial experiences into theological education.

Faculty and administrators participate in annual meetings and discussions on the regional and national levels.

Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology participates yearly in such programs as the Jewish-Catholic Colloquium and dialogues on a regular basis with the Catholic college presidents and faculty from the Religious Studies departments of John Carroll University, Notre Dame College and Ursuline College. The Seminary invites to its yearly lectures the faculties of religion from Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland State University and Baldwin Wallace College. This networking of relationships has established the sharing of resources, collegial friendships and scholarly exchanges.

Collaboration with Entities on the Campus

As one of the five entities at the Center for Pastoral Leadership, Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology works collaboratively with Borromeo Seminary, the Diaconate Formation Office, the Lay Ecclesial Ministry Office, and the Office of Ongoing Formation of Clergy. Using the resources of its faculty, library and staff, many of the lectures and formational programs throughout the academic year provide opportunities for those preparing for ministry and for all those discerning God’s call to dialogue and pray together.

Borromeo Seminary, the undergraduate Seminary formation program in the Diocese of Cleveland and a resident community at the Center for Pastoral Leadership, shares in many of the social, recreational, and liturgical events with the graduate seminarians.
The founding of Saint Mary Seminary was very nearly coincident with the founding of the Diocese of Cleveland. Bishop Amadeus Rappe was consecrated the first Bishop of Cleveland on October 10, 1847. After living for a short time in a rented house near the old Haymarket, the Bishop purchased a property on East 6th Street and St. Clair Avenue. The brick house on this property became his residence, and in 1848 the adjacent frame buildings were made into classrooms and became Cleveland’s first diocesan Seminary. By July of that year, there were eight students enrolled, all of whom lived with the bishop in the episcopal residence.

In the second year of its existence, the Seminary had 18 students and needed larger quarters. In September 1850, Bishop Rappe purchased a new site for his Seminary, a three-story frame building on a site 225 feet square, with frontage on Lake and Hamilton Streets. In 1853 a two-story brick structure was added to the west end of the building, and in 1856 another two-story brick structure was added to the west end to serve as quarters for a classics department.

In 1859 Bishop Rappe began building a new Seminary on the same site. A brick building with the main part three stories high and with two flanking wings of two stories, the new Seminary was occupied in September 1860 by the Philosophy and Theology Departments while the older buildings became the site of the Classics Department, Saint Mary College. The Ordinary, Bishop Joseph Schrembs, broke ground for a new Seminary building on Ansel Road on March 19, 1924; the cornerstone was laid in May.

In the new building, Bishop Schrembs intended to include the Philosophy Program, which prior to that time had been in Cincinnati. In 1929, the Philosophy and Theology Departments were returned to the new Saint Mary, which then became Cleveland’s major Seminary with both a Philosophy Department and a Theologate. In 1954, Archbishop Edward F. Hoban transferred the Philosophy Program from Saint Mary to the newly established Borromeo Seminary of Ohio in Wickliffe, Ohio; since then, Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology has been exclusively a graduate theologate.

On February 24, 1962, the Seminary became an affiliate of Washington, D.C.’s Catholic University of America, and students were eligible to receive the ecclesiastical degree of Bachelors of Sacred Theology (S.T.B). This arrangement continued to 1970.

On August 16, 1968, Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology was incorporated by the State of Ohio. On September 13, 1968, the school was granted a “Certificate of Authorization received from the Ohio Board of Regents” to grant degrees in theological studies (Resolution 1969–13). The members of the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) voted associate membership status to Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology on January 15, 1969, and full accreditation was granted on January 14, 1971. On April 24, 1981, the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools accredited the Seminary.

In 1989, Bishop Anthony M. Pilla, Bishop of the Diocese of Cleveland, inaugurated a thorough and lengthy consultative process to determine the future direction of priestly formation within the Diocese of Cleveland. After examining all the available options, the Presbyteral Council of the Diocese, the consultative body of priests for the bishop, recommended the establishment of a ministry training center to prepare not only priesthood candidates but permanent deacons and pastoral ministers as well. The bishop accepted this recommendation, and he appointed a Transition Committee to oversee the establishment of what is now known as the “Center for Pastoral Leadership, Diocese of Cleveland.”

On September 5, 1991, Saint Mary Seminary moved to the site of Borromeo Seminary in Wickliffe, Ohio, to join this new center. The Center for Pastoral Leadership houses Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology; Borromeo Seminary, which is now a formation program for college students; the Diaconate Formation Office; the Lay Ecclesial Ministry Office; and the Office of Ongoing Formation of Clergy. The five entities at the Center for Pastoral Leadership network and support each other while maintaining their distinct programs.

Significant milestones in the last decade include the retirement of Bishop Anthony Pilla in May 2006 and the appointment of Bishop Richard G. Lennon as the 10th Bishop of Cleveland. Bishop Lennon’s installation on May 15, 2006 marked the beginning of a new chapter in the Diocese of Cleveland, and in his role as Chancellor of Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology continues to influence both the Seminary and the academic community.

A second significant event was the sudden death of the President-Rector, Rev. Thomas Tifft on July 9, 2012. A search process was conducted by the Board of Trustees to recommend candidates to the Members of the Corporation for the position. On May 31, 2013, Rev. Mark A. Latcovich was named President-Rector.

In December 2016 Bishop Lennon resigned due to health reasons, and on July 11, 2017, Bishop Nelson Perez was appointed Bishop of Cleveland. Bishop Perez was installed as the 11th Bishop of Cleveland on September 5, 2017 and serves as Chancellor of Saint Mary Seminary.

The seminary continued to strengthen its academic program by adding the terminal Doctor of Ministry Degree program. In 2000 the Doctor of Ministry Degree program was approved by both the Association of Theological Schools and the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

Since the year 2000, Saint Mary Seminary has experienced steady growth in the numbers of men entering the program for priestly formation. This trend, seen by many seminaries nationwide, is certainly a gift of the Spirit in the new millennium.

The Seminary Seal

The Arms of Saint Mary Seminary are quartered with the basic colors and quarters of the Arms of Pope Pius IX, during whose pontificate the Seminary was founded. The two silver (white) wavy barrulet in the first and fourth quarters commemorate the first parish in the Diocese of Cleveland, Saint Mary of the Lake, and honors the present dedication of the Seminary. The ermine spots in the second and third quarters are derived from the Arms of the Diocese of Cleveland and are symbolic of the Seminary as a diocesan theological. The quartered cross in gold and red symbolizes the truths that are central to theology and honors the founder of the Seminary, Louis Amadeus Rappe, first Bishop of Cleveland, who bore a gold cross on his Arms. The present development of the Seminary owes much to Archbishop Joseph Schrembs, fifth Bishop of Cleveland, whose Arms were tinctured blue, gold and silver. Historical research has shown the diocesan Seminary was, for a very short time, dedicated to St. Francis de Sales, the colors of whose Arms were blue, gold, and red. By a happy coincidence the Arms of Saint Mary Seminary incorporate these colors.
Seminarian Life and Priestly Formation
Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology’s primary commitment is the formation of candidates for priestly ministry. With a two-year pre-theology program and a theology track that includes parish internship components, the Seminary strives to meet the needs and expectations of the Church today in providing both depth and breadth in the scope of theological education, spiritual formation, and pastoral skills within a focused integrative process for the candidates. Formation components include a spiritual intensive in the first year of theology and field education experiences that enhance academic course work. Students participate in theological reflection and are assigned a formation advisor and choose a spiritual director. “The Seminary and its programs foster the formation of future priests by attending specifically to their human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral formation—the four pillars of priestly formation developed in Pastores dabo vobis. These pillars of formation and their finality give specificity to formation in seminaries as well as a sense of the integrated wholeness of the different dimensions of formation” (#70 – Program of Priestly Formation, 5th edition).

Graduate Student Life
Commuter students enrolled in the Doctor of Ministry, Master of Arts, and Continuing Education programs are given opportunities to participate in the many communal dimensions of theological education. Yearly lectures, liturgies, formal socials with board members and faculty, peer symposia and colloquia are some of the graduate activities in which students are encouraged to participate.

Organizations and Activities
Spiritual Growth Opportunities
In accord with its secondary mission, the Seminary offers a number of opportunities for spiritual growth for its Doctor of Ministry, Master of Arts, and Continuing Education students. These opportunities include participation in weekly liturgies and other liturgical events.

Joseph J. Mullen Lectures
For many years, the Seminary has sponsored lectures open to its students and to the clergy of all faiths. In Fall 1969, as a continuing memorial to Monsignor Joseph J. Mullen, Rector Emeritus, who died May 14, 1969, the Seminary organized an annual series of lectures by distinguished scholars. In the Mullen Lecture’s current format one distinguished scholar is invited to give a formal lecture and meet with seminarians and faculty for an informal dialogue.

Community Activities
Opportunities are offered for the recreational, social and cultural life of students. Programs of special interest on an intra-seminary and inter-collegiate basis are encouraged. Student interest in the Diocesan Mission in El Salvador is encouraged.

Liturgical Music Program
The Seminary Liturgical Music Program provides instructional and practical opportunities for both community and choir. The program is under the general direction of the Music Director, who is assisted by student staff members. Organists and other instrumentalists are selected from among qualified students.
The Community Program includes periodic liturgical music rehearsals required of all full-time resident students. During these practices, students prepare for community liturgical services.

Committee Structures

“The seminarians and faculty form the heart of the seminary community and this reality needs careful cultivation so that the distinctive aims of seminary formation can be achieved” (#262 — Program of Priestly Formation, 5th edition).

Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology has sought to follow this directive. Its implementation for faculty-student interaction has taken many forms with continued adaptations according to the needs and characteristics of the Seminary community. The present structure takes the following form:

Rector’s Conference — The Rector meets regularly with the seminarians. These conferences are an integral part of the seminarians’ formation.

Seminarian Dialogues — The Bishop of the local church meets with the seminarians twice a semester. The Rector or Vice-Rector meets each semester with each class to discuss specific issues or concerns. These meetings provide a channel for an exchange of ideas or forum for questions relating to the diocese, parish life and the Seminary community.

House Conference — A House Conference is held twice each semester with an assembly of the faculty and student body. This conference serves as an open forum where student and faculty concerns may be expressed and discussed.

The Faculty Committee — The Faculty Committee determines policy in all areas of the internal life of the Seminary. The concerns of this Committee include the spiritual, liturgical, academic, and community life programs of the Seminary with the aim of implementing, evaluating, and modifying Seminary policy in accord with current Church and civil norms, and the needs of the times. All full-time faculty personnel are on this committee.

The Academic Life Committee — The Academic Life Committee suggests policy to the Faculty Committee in all areas of the academic program, institutional policies, and the library. Faculty department chairs and elected representatives of the student body comprise this committee.

Global Awareness & Interfaith Committee — Concern for the various ethnic cultures residing within the Diocese of Cleveland prompts the Seminary to continually address ways of providing for their pastoral care. The Seminary has a continued partnership with Catholic Relief Services to provide awareness of the global church by giving seminarians opportunities for field experiences in places like Cambodia, Madagascar and the Philippines. Students may also work in the diocesan missions in El Salvador to experience the immersion of language and culture. Globalization remains an important perspective for the M.Div. curriculum. Students also attend a yearly Jewish-Catholic colloquium and participate in the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity by attending a special lecture on ecumenism as part of the M.Div. curriculum.

Institutional Assessment Committee — The Institutional Assessment Committee works with the Faculty Committee and the Academic Life Committee to ensure that the Institutional Outcomes remain linked to each degree program. This committee maintains, reviews, and revises student assessment strategies and degree program outcomes for the school.

The Spiritual-Liturgical Life Committee — The Spiritual-Liturgical Life Committee recommends policy to the Faculty Committee in matters relating to the spiritual and liturgical life of the Seminary. The committee’s membership is composed of the representatives of both the faculty and the student body.

The Social Concerns Committee — The goal of this committee is to serve the community of Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology in integrating its response to social justice concerns. Composed of representatives of both the faculty and the student body, the committee recommends policy modifications to the Faculty Committee.

Recreational Opportunities

The Seminary provides facilities for touch football and volleyball and has an outdoor pool. Intramural competition is encouraged. Indoor facilities include a gymnasium, handball courts, fitness center, billiard and game room, and two student lounges (one exclusively for seminarian students and one for all other students). Once each semester, the Seminary participates in interscholastic sport competitions with regional seminaries.
Academic Year
The Academic year is divided into two semesters of 15 weeks. The fall semester usually begins the last week of August and ends in mid-December. The spring semester begins mid-January and ends in mid-May.

A 14-week summer term, primarily independent study, is offered to Doctor of Ministry and Master of Arts Students. An occasional course may be taught during this time to meet student needs.

Class Attendance
Class Attendance is expected at every meeting of the course(s) for which students are registered unless they are granted the privilege of optional class attendance. Normally, illness or other sufficiently serious circumstances are the only legitimate reasons for missing class.

In case of absence, the student is responsible for class work, assignments, and/or examinations.

Course Credit
Course hours of credit are based on the number of 55-minute class periods, or their equivalent. One credit is granted for 14 class periods plus one class period for examination and assessment. The specific hours of credit for each course are given with its description.

Withdrawal and Credit/Audit Change
To withdraw from a course or to change registration from credit to audit (or the reverse) without penalty, a student must obtain the official form from the Registrar. Failure to attend class or merely giving notice to the instructor will not be regarded as official notice of withdrawal and students will lose any deposits and receive a grade of “F” for the course. The last day to withdraw without financial penalty is indicated on the yearly academic calendar. Students who withdraw from a class after this date are responsible for the entire amount of the semester's tuition. (See the Finance section of this catalog for policies regarding tuition reimbursement in cases of withdrawal.)

Academic Evaluation
Students usually undergo evaluation in all subjects at the end of each term. These evaluations may take the form of oral or written examinations, performance presentations, and research/reflection papers. At times a mid-term assessment may be given, or a mid-term project may be required at the discretion of the professor.

The Master of Divinity Portfolio Capstone Presentation is scheduled around the third week of November. Generally, the last four weeks at the end of each semester are designated for the Doctor of Graduation System and Graduate School of Theology and its special relationship to the training of ecclesial leaders demands that students exhibit personal integrity and high ethical standards. Academic honesty is expected of every student involved in the Seminary’s academic program. Therefore, unless other sources are appropriately indicated, all material which a student offers for a course must represent only his or her own work. Claiming the work of others as one’s own or falsifying materials (e.g., term papers, exams, or reports, etc.) can result in failure for the specific assignment or the entire course, as well as suspension or expulsion from the Seminary or degree program.

Grading System

Grade reports are given to the students at the end of each term. Term grades are based on oral and written class work and examinations.

The grade received is an evaluation of actual performance and the degree of mastery the student has manifested to the instructor. The following grading system is employed.

An incomplete (I) is given only for serious reasons. If a student is unable to comply with a deadline, he or she must obtain permission for an “I” from the professor on or before the due date for the assignment. Course work must be made up within a designated time, usually one month, but no restriction is placed on the grade a student may receive.

Course work not completed during the extended time given for an Incomplete (I) results in a grade of “F”.

Should a student in a degree program fail a required course, he/she must repeat the course. A failing grade is computed in the cumulative grade average.

The following descriptions serve as evaluative measures of the professor’s assessment of student work. The use of pluses and minuses in the grading scale allows for an accurate evaluation of the student’s performance within the range of each letter grade.

[A, A+] Outstanding achievement: exceptional aptitude and performance. The student has demonstrated a number of the following characteristics: an exceptionally good grasp of the course material; evidence of self-initiated reading; cooperation in course activities; manifestation of exceptional capability and originality; a command of appropriate vocabulary and superior ability to integrate and make associations with other material studied.

[B+, B, B-] Good achievement: a significantly higher grasp of the course material, which goes beyond the required basic elements. The student has demonstrated a number of the following characteristics: a significantly more effective command of the material than is generally required; demonstrated ability to perceive applications of principles and relate them to other material; work distinctly above the average; investment in extra-curricular work on his own on course material; a personal grasp of principles so they can be discussed with ease.

[D] Poor achievement: a minimal grasp of course content and limited ability to apply principles learned.

[F] Failure: failure to meet minimal requirements as specified by the instructor. The student must repeat the course if it is required for a degree program.

Academic Appeals

Saint Mary Seminary reserves the right to discipline or dismiss a student who fails to meet the Seminary’s or degree program’s academic standards. Any student who objects to an academic decision can appeal that action by submitting a formal letter of appeal to the Academic Dean within ten days of the receipt of the evaluation or grade report. The letter should present the facts surrounding the student’s complaint and include any pertinent documentation. If the appeal concerns a grade or academic decision, the Academic Dean will arrange a meeting with the student and the professor at a mutually agreed upon time. Depending on the nature of the complaint, such as dismissal from an academic program, the Academic Dean may select members from the Seminary community to serve on an Appeals Board. In requesting an appeal, the student agrees to be bound by the decision of the Appeals Board. The decision of the Appeals Board is final and not subject to further appeal. The decision and rationale are communicated in writing to the persons involved and are kept on file in the Academic Dean’s office.
Grievances
In non-academic matters, a student presents a formal letter to the Vice President/Vice Rector outlining the grievance. The Vice President/Vice Rector will determine the process for review and resolution and will maintain a file of all pertinent documentation of formal grievances.

Honor Students
Master of Divinity students in the second, third, fourth and fifth year of theology and Master of Arts students whose cumulative grade point averages are 3.5 or above are classified as “honor students.”

They may be granted, at the discretion of an individual professor, the privilege of optional class attendance so they may acquire a more thorough knowledge of a subject through independent study under scholarly direction.

When professors judge that an honor student would gain more by class attendance, they may require attendance for a particular lecture or exercise or the entire course. The student must be present for all announced tests and is held responsible for all class materials and major assignments.

Independent Study
A full-time, degree-seeking student may participate in an independent study under the supervision of a faculty member with the approval of the Academic Dean. The student must first receive permission from the Academic Dean to approach a faculty member for an independent study. No student is permitted to take an independent study in a given area in a semester where an elective course in that area is offered, unless he/she has taken that elective course.

Inclusive Language
Gospel values and contemporary social consciousness urge us to recognize and change those attitudes and practices that are unjust. Christian tradition holds that all people are created in the image of God and that attitudes against anyone because of sex, age, race, or handicap diminish us all. Therefore, it is the policy of Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology to foster the use of inclusive language in academic endeavors and to work to eliminate attitudes and customs that stereotype and unfairly separate persons one from another.

Professional Appearance and Attire
Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology prepares men and women for formal ministry in the Church. Therefore, personal appearance and attire should reflect ministry standards. Commuter students are expected to dress modestly and respectfully and be well groomed for class and while on campus. Seminarians follow the house dress code and guidelines in the Handbook. The administration and faculty reserve the right to determine whether a student’s appearance is acceptable.

Transcripts
Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology adheres to the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (Buckley Amendment). This act states that the written consent of the past or present student must be obtained before allowing transcripts to be released to any person or body, and such permission is granted only for the reasons specified in the written consent.

Students who wish transcripts of records to transfer to other schools or for other purposes should submit a signed request to the Registrar’s Office at least two weeks in advance of need. To protect students and alumni, no telephone requests for transcripts will be honored. Transcripts are issued only at the request of the student, and official transcripts are sent directly to the college or university to which transfer is desired. A fee of $2 is required for each transcript requested.

Official transcripts are sent directly to institutions or agencies. Transcripts sent or given to students are marked “ unofficial,” are unsigned, and do not bear the Seminary seal. Transcripts are released only when all outstanding financial balances have been paid.

Transfer of Credit and Advanced Standing from Other Schools
Saint Mary Seminary has the right to determine if it will accept graduate credits for work completed in other accredited schools. Not more than one-half of the credits previously earned can be accepted into the degree programs. Credits considered for transfer must be equivalent in content to the comparable Saint Mary Seminary course, earned within 8 years of the application to the Master of The following rules govern a student on academic probation:

- A student who remains on probation for three consecutive semesters will be required to withdraw for unsatisfactory academic performance.
- A student who remains on probation for two consecutive semesters may choose: To continue the regular class-hour load and attempt to remove the probation the third semester, or to reduce the class-hour load and lengthen the time of the course of studies.

A student on probation:

- May be required to submit a progress report to the Academic Dean
- May have extra-curricular activities curtailed in the case of candidates for the priesthood
- May not be admitted to candidacy or receive ministries during that semester
- May be asked to postpone the internship year to enroll in another semester of coursework to remove the probation
- Will not be permitted to hold school offices
- May be required to lengthen the time of course studies

The following rules govern M.A. and D.Min. students on academic probation:

At the close of each semester, a student is placed on academic probation if the cumulative grade point average is less than 3.00. The student is removed from probation that semester in which the grade average rises to or above 3.00. Placement on, retention on, or removal from probation is noted on the term grade report and the permanent record.

No credit is given for a course in which a student earns an “F.” A student must retake a failed required course the next time it is offered. If the failure is in an elective course, the student must take an equivalent elective in the same department. Exceptions to these policies (e.g., an independent study in a subsequent semester to make up a required course) are at the discretion of the Academic Dean.

An M.A. student who remains on probation after the completion of 15 semester hours will be required to withdraw for unsatisfactory academic performance.

A D.Min. student who is on academic probation for two semesters or who earns a grade of “F” in any course is subject to dismissal from the program.

Educational Technology

Access to the Seminary Internet system and other forms of educational technology is made available to students and faculty to enhance the educational experience and to improve their ability to communicate with others. The appropriate use of educational technology in class is both permitted and encouraged.

All classrooms are equipped for use of technology and Internet access. While in class students are expected to limit their use of personal technology to the course work at hand. Faculty may limit a student’s use of personal technology if it is deemed to be a distraction or inappropriate or is detrimental to the learning environment.

The usual expectation of ethical behavior extends to the use the Internet and educational technology. While users are encouraged to conduct legitimate research on the system, any use of technology that panders to immoral behavior or attitudes is prohibited. Obviously civil and criminal laws must be obeyed. Users are reminded that they are responsible for observing the U.S. Copyright laws (United States Code, Title 17); obeying all licensing restrictions in connection with software that is downloaded or used in connection with the system and respecting the privacy of others.

Winter Weather Policy

Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology normally does not cancel classes since seminarians are resident students. In the case of severe weather, non-resident students are encouraged to contact their professors and let them know they will not be able to attend class. The professor will not penalize the student. However, the student will be responsible to obtain class notes and complete assigned readings. If a non-resident professor has cancelled class, students may call the front desk, or they will receive an email or call from the professor or Registrar.
The mission of Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology—priestly formation and advanced theological education for ecclesiastical service—cannot be seen merely in terms of academic programs, as valuable as they are. All aspects of Saint Mary Seminary—the fraternal community, the rigorous intellectual programs and resources, the rich spiritual and liturgical grounding, the challenging experiences in pastoral ministries, the stable financial and physical resources challenge the student to bear fruit, to grow in Christian discipleship, to allow themselves to be formed by the Word they have heard, to plumb the depths of the Catholic intellectual tradition, and to be equipped to communicate that Word in collaboration with others in the mission of the New Evangelization. Assessment results are a time-lapsed record and one measure of institutional effectiveness.

Institutional outcomes are regularly assessed using multiple strategies that include both direct and indirect measures of student learning. The assessment program indicates that Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology degree programs produce their intended outcomes and are educationally effective.

Within the past six years, 88% of those enrolled in the Master of Divinity program and eligible to graduate received degrees with an average GPA of 3.41. Eighty-nine percent (89%) of those who graduated were given assignments in parish ministry by the Diocese, and 11% were appointed to ministry in a religious congregation.

Seventy percent (70%) of those enrolled in the Master of Arts Degree program are part-time students (1 or 2 courses per semester) and generally complete the program in an average of five to seven years. Over the past ten years 77% of those eligible to graduate completed the program and were awarded degrees with an average GPA of 3.62. In the last three years, however, the completion rate was 97%. Most lay M.A. students who enroll in the program already have ministerial positions within the Diocese. Nineteen percent (19%) served in educational ministries; and 71% in parish, diocesan or pastoral ministries. Graduates either had positions at the time of graduation or obtained ministerial positions within a year after graduation.

Within the past ten years, 86% of those enrolled in the Doctor of Ministry program were awarded the degree with an average GPA of 3.81. The D.Min. Degree program requires that applicants be in full-time ministry for at least three years prior to admission. Thirty-nine percent (39%) of the graduates serve in ordained ministries, 23% in educational ministries, and 38% in parish, diocesan, and pastoral ministries.

The effectiveness of an institution cannot be easily quantified. It must ultimately be measured in the generous, competent, committed lives of its graduates. The statistics given here seem to indicate that over the course of each degree program students grow personally and professionally. Further, they are eagerly welcomed as colleagues into the broader ministries of the Diocese of Cleveland. A 170-year tradition is a living statement to the effectiveness of Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology and a commitment to its future.
Tuition and Fees
A current schedule of tuition and fees as well as cost per credit hour for courses may be found on the website or by contacting the Registrar. These fees are subject to change for each academic year.

Refund for tuition will be made on the following basis:

- Within the first two weeks of class: 100%
- Within the third and fourth weeks of class: 80%
- Within the fifth week of class: 40%
- Within the sixth week of class: 20%
- Within the seventh week of class: 0%

A student who changes from credit to audit or audit to credit or adds or drops a class should do so by the end of the second week of the new semester after consultation with the Academic Dean. A student seeking a refund of tuition must withdraw from a class by the sixth week of the semester. Refunds are issued according to the schedule above.

Students who withdraw from a class after the sixth week are responsible for the entire amount of the semester’s tuition.

There is no refund for a failed course. Students are responsible for the entire semester tuition. Tuition for a failed course cannot be applied to a re-take.

Course Registration and Payment Policy
Registration for new students must be completed through the Registrar’s office. Returning students may register online. Students failing to register by the date indicated on the academic calendar will incur a late fee. Tuition may be paid by cash, check, or credit card (Visa, MasterCard and American Express).

All audit fees should be paid in full at time of registration. Master of Arts and Continuing Education students are to pay a deposit of $100 per credit hour at the time of registration and Doctor of Ministry students are to pay a deposit of $500 per semester. Payment agreements can be made with the Academic Dean and the accounting office.

Grades and transcripts will not be released until the account is paid in full. However, if payment arrangements have been established and met, the student may register for the next semester.

All tuition is due within 30 days of receipt of the invoice

Graduating students with a past due balance will not receive a diploma or final transcripts until all tuition and fees have been paid. Students may participate in the commencement exercises when the degree is conferred.

US Federal Student Financial Assistance Programs and Deferment
Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology does not participate in the US Federal Student Financial Assistance programs. All students enrolled at least half time, (i.e. 4 credits for graduate students) may be eligible for student loan deferment. All deferment requests are to be submitted to the Registrar for verification and processing.
Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology recognizes that candidates entering the process of priestly formation will have disparate backgrounds in philosophy and in religious studies. For students who do not have the required 36 hours of Philosophy and 12 hours of Religious Studies to begin the Master of Divinity Program, Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology sponsors a Pre–Theology Program.

The academic courses of the Pre–Theology Program are taught primarily by the faculty of Borromeo Seminary and are accredited by John Carroll University. However, the faculty of Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology directs the formation components.

Among the courses offered are the following:
- TRS 200 Old Testament Introduction
- TRS 205 New Testament Introduction
- TH 300 The Catechism of the Catholic Church†
- TH 301 Documents of Vatican II†
- PAS 300 Ecclesiastical Latin†
- PAS 501 Pastoral Spanish†
- PL 101 Ancient Greek Philosophy
- PL 225 Medieval Philosophy and Logic
- PL 240 17/18th Century European Philosophy
- PL 246 Contemporary Philosophy
- PL 308 Philosophy of God
- PL 368 Ethical Theory
- PL 387 Philosophy of Nature
- PL 395 Metaphysics
- PL 396 Epistemology
- PL 425 Philosophy of the Human Person

† Taught through Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology
The Master of Divinity (M.Div.) program is the basic program of graduate professional education. The basic sequence of 113 semester hours is organized into 5 general areas: Biblical Studies, Historical Studies, Systematic Theology, Pastoral Theology, and Liturgical/Sacramental Theology. The course sequence is so arranged that there is a progression from Revelation to a systematic understanding and application of principles to the mission of the Church as required in parochial ministry.

The program is professional in orientation, yet truly academic in that it demands extensive integrative study and the adequate use of research methods. The program prepares the student to carry out ministry in a creative and responsible fashion.

| Christian Discipleship: Transforming one’s person into an image of Jesus in response to the Word of God and one’s ecclesial tradition and role within it, to appropriate a Christian world view that influences actions and interactions | Exhibits a commitment to the Church in its mission, manifested in respect for the Word of God, Tradition and the Magisterium of the Church
Demonstrates an appropriation of the Church’s tradition of Pastoral, Liturgical and Servant Leadership
Values the ethical and moral principles of the Christian life |
| Formation: Integrates various components of the program to achieve an authentic renewal of one’s mind and heart for personal, professional and ecclesial growth | Develops a disposition and skills for human, intellectual, and spiritual development and pastoral application
Values, integrates, and uses assessment feedback from faculty, spiritual directors, field education, and peers
Engages in self-assessment based on the PPF and recognizes the need for ongoing formation
Demonstrates an ability to live a life:
• permeated by the charge to teach, to sanctify and to govern
• of prayer centered in the Eucharist, the Liturgy of the Hours, and the liturgical cycles
• of obedience that is apostolic, communal and pastoral
• in communion with one’s bishop and the presbytery
• of celibate chastity
Adheres to professional and ethical norms of conduct for ministry |
| Theological Thinking: Analyzes and critically responds to the various expressions of Christian faith traditions and praxis and uses the insights other fields of study contribute to the understanding of those expressions | Demonstrates a knowledge of the biblical, historical, systematic, liturgical/sacramental and pastoral theologies of the Church
Engages in critical thinking and ministerial practice which includes:
• engagement in theological research
• employment of a variety of theological and pastoral methodologies
• analysis of a variety of theological texts and traditions
• synthesis of insights from a variety of theological disciplines in light of pastoral situations
• evaluation of theological texts and pastoral situations
Engages in Theological Reflection (Formal and in-class) |
| Communication: Uses oral and written communication skills to meet the needs of various audiences. In this process the student utilizes appropriate theological language and develops frameworks in which to express theological ideas. | Demonstrates an ability to read and reflect critically
Demonstrates an ability to speak clearly and meaningfully:
• preaching, oral proclamation
• social-interpersonal communication
• articulation of an accurate understanding of the biblical, historical, systematic, liturgical/sacramental and pastoral theologies of the Church
• development of a verbal and non-verbal liturgical presence
Demonstrates an ability to write with clarity and insight and adheres to standards of academic integrity |
| Collaboration: Develops and uses personal and interpersonal skills that can enhance the quality of ministry and style of leadership in the service of community building and in the achievement of common goals | Participates and engages in a productive way with co-workers in ministry (i.e., pastoral staffs, diocesan structures, ecumenical-interfaith relationships, etc.)
Appropriately values diverse ecclesiologies, theological positions, cultures and global perspectives and responds with prudence to erroneous positions
Demonstrates leadership skills to achieve common goals of the community |

The Master of Divinity degree is the normative degree to prepare men for ordained ministry and for general pastoral and religious leadership responsibilities in congregations and other settings, following guidelines of The Association of Theological Schools. The Master of Divinity Program incorporates the components from the Program of Priestly Formation 5th edition.

Master of Divinity Program Goals Linked to Institutional Outcomes

Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology established five institutional outcomes: Christian Discipleship, Formation, Theological Thinking, Communication, and Collaboration. These outcomes define our reflective identity and vocation as a seminary and are linked to specific programmatic goals for the Master of Divinity program.

Prerequisites for Admission to the Program

Applicants to Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology must have a bachelor's degree or its equivalent from an institution accredited by a regional accrediting association.

College courses prior to theological studies should provide the cultural and intellectual foundations essential to pursuing theological education.
These courses should have furnished the student with the tools of learning proper to an educated person.

Since it is difficult to prescribe one pattern as normative for all pre-seminary education, Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology, following the guidelines of The Association of Theological Schools regarding pre-seminary studies, envisages a number of categories of learning in which a student will have developed some in-depth understanding:

Secular Understandings
- Understanding of human selfhood and existence
- Understanding of modern social institutions and problems
- Understanding of culture and religion
- Understanding of science and technology
- Understanding of the modes and processes of knowing

Theological Understandings
- Bible: content and interpretation
- History of Christianity
- Constructive theological methodology and interpretation
- Linguistic Skills
- Greek, Hebrew, Latin
- German, French, or Spanish

It is recommended that students have a reading knowledge of one of the biblical languages and of one of the classical or modern languages. For example, French or German may be helpful for a person contemplating possible graduate study in academic theology. Spanish might be of value for specialized ministry.

In general, students should seek to develop competence across the areas outlined above. Students should be able to write and speak clearly.

Specific requirements are the following:
- Theology—at least 12 semester hours in courses distributed normally over the areas of Hebrew and Christian scripture, biblical history and literature, World Religions, Roman Catholic theology, and courses in sacramental theology.
- Philosophy—at least 36 semester hours normally including courses in contemporary philosophy, ethics, logic or epistemology, metaphysics or natural theology, and philosophical anthropology.
- Test scores from the general Graduate Record Examination (GRE).

Furthermore, Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology reserves the right to give entrance or qualifying examinations in any of the categories above. A student, however, with a bachelor’s degree who earned less than the 48
Candidates for the Roman Catholic Priesthood

Applicants should understand that the diocesan priesthood vocation is a call to service that comes from the local Church, and therefore, on-going formation is subject to the scrutiny of that local community of which the Seminary is an integral part.

Applicants should be open to developments in church life and practices to prepare them for a lifelong commitment to the priesthood.

A Bishop or a Religious Superior must sponsor prospective students who intend to prepare themselves for ordination. To the extent permitted by its primary mission, the Seminary will make efforts to accommodate candidates for the priesthood from religious communities and from other rites.

Applicants must provide, in addition to the documents required of all full-time, degree-seeking students, Baptismal and Confirmation certificates; Marriage certificates of parents from Church records; character testimonial from the pastor; and letters of recommendation. In addition, applicants are required to provide an autobiography or personal history, which includes a vocational discernment statement. Students from a college seminary are required to have a positive evaluation and recommendation from their seminary faculty.

The Admissions Committee considers each applicant, whether from the Diocese of Cleveland, other dioceses or religious communities. Prior to acceptance by the Admissions Committee, each applicant will be expected to undergo physical and psychological examination by qualified professionals approved by the Seminary and appropriate background checks.

Application deadline for entry into the Seminary program is July 1.

Candidates for the Roman Catholic priesthood are to have access to a vehicle.

Portfolio Assessment and Capstone Project

Students enrolled in the Master of Divinity Degree program maintain an electronic academic portfolio for the duration of their studies. The portfolio benchmarks writing skills, performance abilities in preaching and liturgical presiding, and leadership qualities. The portfolio gives evidence of the student’s integration of the human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral domains that document his personal growth and development toward priestly ministry.

At the end of each semester, the student posts the required assignment to the portfolio and writes a reflection on the required artifact based on the particular assignment’s criteria. The instructor (or supervisor) for the course responds to the written student assessment by posting his/her evaluation and constructive comments. The student and his formation advisor access this material to discuss areas for growth and identify future learning goals.

The following academic courses are targeted for the portfolio assessment:

First Theology: Fall Semester
- TH 530 Fundamental Theology: paper
- SC 510 Biblical Hermeneutics: final paper
- HIS 522 Church History I: paper

First Theology: Spring Semester
- LIT 560 Liturgical/Sacramental Theology: sample blog posting that presents the student’s personal spirituality of liturgy and sacraments
- LIT 571 Oral Interpretation and Proclamation: videotape

Second Theology: Fall Semester
- LIT 588 Baptism and Confirmation: Easter Vigil Project
- TH 533 Christology: Self-reflection— How has the student addressed the writing goals identified in TH 530?
- FE 560 Pastoral Care of the Sick: Self-reflection journal

Second Theology: Spring Semester
- FE 561 Catholic Education Practicum: lesson plan, reflection on the lesson
- TH 532 Fundamental Moral Theology: paper

Third Theology: Internship Year
- Project in the parish that demonstrates various skills
- Videotape of homily
- Reflection on homiletic style
- Reflection on lay formation board input

Fourth Theology
- TH 542 Christian Sexuality: presentation or debate
- Video of homily
- Student also chooses entries from each of these categories in his fourth or fifth year:
  - History paper that reflects historical methodology
  - Scripture paper
  - Project from LIT 580 Holy Orders, LIT 590 Eucharist, or LIT 589 Penance and Anointing
  - Canon Law case study

Fifth Theology
- Reflection on liturgical style
- TH 538 Bioethics: paper

Portfolio Integration Seminar

Toward the end of the first semester of the fifth year, the student, working with his Formation Advisor, edits his portfolio to create a 20-minute presentation that synthesizes areas of growth and challenge as he completes the degree program. A board comprised of the student’s Formation Advisor and two assigned faculty members react to the presentation and engage the student in a guided discussion on questions such as: Where have you seen interplay and integration in the four pillars of formation? Cite examples from your portfolio. What mentoring do you still need as you prepare to begin ministry? What areas of ongoing formation have you identified in your portfolio synthesis? The board will render a “pass” or “fail” decision on the overall quality of the student’s presentation, analysis and responses.
A admission to the Master of Arts Degree program requires a bachelor's degree from an institution accredited by a regional accrediting association. The applicant must request that an official transcript of credit earned at all colleges and graduate schools previously attended be sent directly to the Seminary. The results of the general Graduate Record Examination (GRE) with the writing component are also required unless waived by the Academic Dean because of previous graduate work.

Application deadlines are August 1 (prior to Fall admissions) and December 1 (prior to Spring admissions). After the application and other records have been received, letters of recommendation may be requested from former professors and others familiar with the applicant’s ability and probable performance as a graduate student.

Master of Arts (Theology) Degree Curriculum

Prerequisites:
- A Bachelor of Arts degree or its equivalent from an institution accredited by a regional accrediting association.
- Suitable test scores from the Graduate Record Examination (GRE)
- An undergraduate background supported by undergraduate achievement, which would indicate the ability to engage successfully in graduate theological studies. It is most desirable that this background includes courses in philosophy and some introductory undergraduate courses in Scripture and Catholic doctrine.
- For those pursuing a double degree program (both the Master of Divinity and Master of Arts degree), completion of at least one year in the Master of Divinity program while maintaining at least an accumulative “B” average is required.

The Master of Arts Symposium

At the completion of all course work, the student is required to select and complete a symposium from one of three formats: a written take-home exam, a developed thesis statement or a written research paper. A student must meet with the Academic Dean prior to beginning any of the three formats to discuss the assignment of the faculty mentor and two additional faculty readers and to approve the symposium topic.

If the Master of Arts symposium involves surveys or instruments that will be used for specific research on human subjects, the MA symposium must comply with the protocol of the Institutional Review Board. (For further information see page 33.)

The student must submit the name of the faculty mentor and title of the project focus to the Registrar by November 1 or March 1. A student may choose his or her format for the concluding symposium from one of the following:

Format A:
A written take-home question

Part I.
A student who selects Format A meets with his or her advisor who is approved by the Academic Dean at least one month prior to the proposed symposium date. After some discussion with the student, the Advisor, in consultation with two additional faculty readers, prepares a general question that requires the student to use a specific methodology or interpretative framework. The student is to prepare a written response that demonstrates the integration and competence of his or her theological concentration and study. The question is given to the student at a time jointly agreed upon by the professor and the student. The focus question invites the student to synthesize his or her learning within the broader context of other theological areas. The written response by the student is not less than 8 and not more than 12 typed-written, double-spaced pages completed within a period of 48 hours after having received the question.

The student may use the following outline to develop his or her written answer:

- A summary statement of the approach and scope of how the question is answered.
- A structured format with the use of appropriate subtitles that present biblical and/or systematic foundations pertinent to the focus of the questions or a historical framework that provides a context for the development of the question.
- A synthesized response that addresses the scope of the focus question and demonstrates both the depth and breadth gleaned from theological study; the student incorporates references to seminal works from his or her theological discipline and presents his or her ideas with summative clarity and description.
• A conclusion that identifies insights gained from this task.

• Citations and footnotes of theological resources consulted (cf. A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate L. Turabian, 8th Edition).

• A bibliography of consulted resources.

The Preliminary Process — The student submits his or her finished take home question to the Advisor at the conclusion of the 48-hour period. The student, after discussion with the Advisor and Readers, schedules the date and time of the symposium with the Registrar. The Committee evaluates the written response to the question using the following criteria: the student's approach and organization of the question, the use of salient theological-historical literature, personal integration, and the student's overall creativity in developing the written answer within a 48-hour period. The Committee may meet before the scheduled date of the symposium to shape a strategy for their discussion.

Part II.

Presentation Format — The student presents a 15-minute summary of his or her response to the exam question followed by a 40-minute discussion/question period.

Discussion Process — Faculty readers give feedback and engage the student in a discussion of the written material. The student should be prepared to answer any questions by the Committee or to elaborate on his or her theological convictions or pastoral concerns reflected in the written answer.

Evaluation — The student's written answer and oral presentation is evaluated and given one of three grades: “pass with honors,” “pass,” or “fail” based on the rubrics for the format and degree program.

Format B:

A developed thesis statement

Part I.

The student develops a thesis statement that reflects his or her focused area of concentration. The statement should be composed from the student's course work and demonstrate sufficient integration, insight, research, and theological development.

Thesis statement overview:
• The thesis statement is a 50-word articulation of the student’s symposium topic. The thesis statement reflects one or several theological perspective(s) that is (are) clearly defined with a particular focus.
• The thesis statement is supported by a detailed outline.
• The thesis statement and outline should not exceed four single-spaced typed pages.
• The thesis statement has an attached bibliography of sources consulted.
• The thesis statement reflects contemporary scholarship, research, personal insight and integration. It represents a composite of the student’s critical assessment and thinking within the theological enterprise.

Although the Advisor is the primary consultant and is responsible for the final approval of the thesis statement, the student is free to call upon other faculty members for assistance and direction.

The Preliminary Process — When the Advisor has approved the thesis statement, outline, and bibliography, the student submits these materials to the two readers. After consultation with the committee, the student schedules the date and time of the symposium with the Registrar.

The Committee evaluates the thesis statement, outline, and bibliography using the following criteria: the student's approach and organization of the topic, the use of salient theological-historical literature, personal integration, and the student's overall creativity in developing and presenting the material. The Committee may meet before the scheduled date of the symposium to shape a strategy for their discussion.

Part II.

Presentation Format — During the symposium, the student presents a 15-minute overview of his/her thesis statement followed by a 40-minute discussion/question period.

Discussion Process — In his/her discussion with faculty members, the student is expected to demonstrate an understanding of theological methodology, an awareness of the important literature-documentation and contemporary scholarship in of the following areas: Biblical, Historical, Systematic, Pastoral and Liturgical-Sacramental Theology. The student demonstrates the ability to integrate theological and pastoral convictions. The student's area of focus must also demonstrate the interdisciplinary nature of the theological enterprise.

Evaluation — The student’s thesis outline and oral presentation is given one of three grades:
“pass with honors,” “pass,” or “fail” based on the rubrics for the format and degree program.

Format C:
A written research paper

Part I.
The student choosing Format C approaches the Academic Dean three semesters before his or her projected date of graduation (even though course work may not be completed). An Advisor is appointed who will mentor the student through the completed project. The research paper’s topic evolves from the student’s current area of study and does not require research in an entirely new area. The paper is intended to broaden and deepen the student’s knowledge and understanding of an already familiar topic.

In order to help the student achieve the objectives for a written research paper, the following format is recommended: The student submits a one-page prospectus with a preliminary bibliography to his or her Advisor.

- The student submits a one-page prospectus with a preliminary bibliography to his or her Advisor.
- The student receives approval of the topic and focus of the paper from the Advisor at least two semesters before graduation. At this time, the student, in consultation with the Advisor, selects two additional faculty Readers.
- In some instances, the Advisor may have the student consult the wider faculty for guidance and assistance.
- The Advisor serves as the writing mentor for the student. Thus, the student should work out a schedule to meet with the Advisor during the course of the semester. It is in the student’s best interest to submit drafts of the paper to the Advisor for feedback and direction.
- The paper should be at least 25 pages in length, but not exceed 40 pages.
- The research paper follows the format and style of A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate L. Turabian, 8th Edition.

The Preliminary Process — The student presents the final draft of the paper to the Advisor five weeks before the anticipated date of the symposium. During that time, the Advisor may meet with the student and make minor revisions to the paper. Once the paper is approved, the student in consultation with the Advisor and Readers, schedules the date and time of the symposium with the Registrar. Faculty readers should be given at least two weeks to read the paper. The Committee may meet before the scheduled symposium to prepare their comments for the student.

Part II.

Presentation Format — During the symposium, the student is expected to give a 15-minute synopsis of his or her paper. This will be followed by a 40-minute discussion/question period.

Discussion Process — The student may be asked by the Committee to clarify or further develop an area represented in his or her paper. The student will be asked to discuss certain points, areas, or sections within his or her paper, explain his or her theological or historical methodology, and discuss the literature reflected in the bibliography. The student’s research demonstrates the interdisciplinary nature of the theological enterprise reflected in the treatment of the topic. The Committee will evaluate the student’s overall organization of the paper, the quality of the written work, the development of the topic, and the student’s ability to discuss and support his or her written work.

Evaluation — The student’s written paper and his or her oral presentation is given one of three grades: “pass with honors,” “pass,” or “fail” based on the rubrics for the format and degree program.

Protocol for All Formats
All scheduled symposia will be posted on the Faculty and Student bulletin boards and on the Saint Mary Seminary website (www.stmarysem.edu) with names of committee members, time and location.

The symposium is a public forum. Faculty, students, and invited guests may attend any of the scheduled symposia. The student should notify the Registrar of the number of guests expected. The student will also need to contact the library to arrange for the use of any audiovisual equipment if needed.

At the symposium, students may use the following resources: (a) the final copy of the work (i.e., the written exam, the thesis outline or the research paper), (b) appropriate resources or materials approved by the Advisor (e.g., a Bible or a theological work by a given author), and (c) in special cases, audio-visual equipment (i.e., PowerPoint) that may enhance the student’s presentation.

When a student’s work reflects outstanding integration, exceptional aptitude, excellence and originality both in the written and oral presentations, the Committee may award “pass with honors.”

When the student has demonstrated above average integration, aptitude, and competence in the respective field, both in the written and oral presentations, the Committee may award the vote of “pass.”

A student who receives a failing vote by the Committee must reschedule a symposium during one of the next two semesters. The student will have the option to (1) choose a new format for the symposium, (2) change his or her Advisor and have a new Committee appointed, or (3) continue to work with the same format but address concerns and implement recommendations from the previous symposium. A student receives only one opportunity to reschedule a symposium.
Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology offers a Master of Arts Degree program consisting of 44 graduate credit hours over the theological disciplines. Most M.A. graduates are involved in various forms of ministry in parishes and in the diocese. Qualified Master of Arts graduates are consistently a source of excellent candidates for the Doctor of Ministry program. By having a specific path to earn the M.Div. equivalency, defined by the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) as 72 graduate semester hours, these individuals intentionally progress toward the Doctor of Ministry program and remain invested in the learning community of Saint Mary Seminary during the transition. The Path to M.Div. Equivalency offers both guidance and flexibility to meet the post-graduate students’ learning and ministry situation. A Path to M.Div. Equivalency for Master of Arts Graduates also encourages qualified candidates to pursue a terminal ministry degree, i.e. Doctor of Ministry, at Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology.

Equivalency Components

Prerequisite: A Master of Arts degree consisting of a minimum of 44 graduate credit hours and a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 and be recommended for the Path to M.Div. Equivalency by two faculty members. In addition, the post-graduate student will present a statement of ministry involvement from the pastor or supervisor. (While this plan is designed for the SMS Master of Arts graduate, transcript analysis is available for students who have earned their M.A. theology degree from an accredited institution elsewhere.)

28 graduate credit hours distributed as follows:

- Post-Graduate Electives — 8 credit hours. Onsite; Electives from the regular semester course offerings which were not taken during the Master of Arts program and other electives periodically offered by the seminary.
- Independent Study or Online Courses — 4 — 8 credit hours. With prior approval of the Academic Dean; Online courses (or seminars) must be in graduate level Catholic theology, not already taken in the M.A. program, and offered from an accredited Catholic university such as Catholic Distance University or Catholic University of America. Instead of on-line courses, the student may elect to take additional electives at Saint Mary Seminary.

Time for Completion

The focused post-graduate student would be able to complete the Path to M.Div. Equivalency in approximately two (2) calendar years, i.e. four academic semesters and two summers. However, each student’s Path may be designed to meet individual scheduling needs.

Financial Obligation

Post-graduate students pursuing the Path to M.Div. Equivalency are financially responsible for the special post-graduate rate for the entire Path to M.Div. Equivalency. (See annual tuition schedule for the current rate.) This represents a further discount on the already discounted rate for students in full-time ministry. Payment may be made by course or according to a payment plan arranged with the Finance Office. Published financial policies of Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology as posted on the seminary website apply to post-graduate students.

Note: If online courses are taken at other approved universities, the student must meet the application procedures and financial obligations of the university. In this case the Saint Mary Seminary cost per credit does not apply. Official transcripts of online courses must be received by Saint Mary Seminary.

Admission to the Doctor of Ministry Program

Post-graduate students who have successfully completed the Path to M.Div. Equivalency, who have maintained a minimum GPA of 3.0 and are recommended by the Academic Dean and at least two additional faculty members, are automatically accepted into the Doctor of Ministry Program.

Note: Once admitted formally into the Doctor of Ministry Program, students pay the D.Min. tuition rate as approved for the current year.
The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) program at Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology intends to enhance the practice of ministry for those who hold the M.Div. degree or its educational equivalent and who have engaged in substantial ministerial leadership. The degree provides an advanced understanding of the nature and purposes of ministry with a view to the integration of pastoral theology into ministerial practice. Further, the purpose of the Doctor of Ministry degree is to acquire new knowledge about the practice of ministry, hone competencies in pastoral analysis and ministerial skills, integrate these dimensions into the theological reflective practice of ministry, all of which lead to continued growth in spiritual maturity and ministerial competence.

Degree Design and Requirements

Goals and Objectives

The program is designed to develop a minister’s understanding of the contexts of his or her ministries within the Christian community, and to help the minister situate his or her ministries within the total life of the Church. The participants are given the opportunity not only to study various aspects of ministry but also to focus on a specific area of ministry and to develop in depth a particular ministerial project.

Doctor of Ministry Degree Program Goals Linked to Institutional Outcomes

Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology established five institutional outcomes: Christian Discipleship, Formation, Theological Thinking, Communication, and Collaboration that over arch all three degree programs. These outcomes define our reflective identity, and vocation as a seminary, and are linked to specific programmatic goals for the Doctor of Ministry Degree program.

Eligibility

Any ordained minister, religious or layperson, who is engaged in full-time ministry for at least three years may apply for admission to the D.Min. program provided the following academic, professional and ecclesial requirements are met:

1. Academic: A Master of Divinity degree or its educational equivalent (72 graduate semester hours—verified by official transcripts)—that include a Master’s degree representing broad-based work in theology and biblical studies, and which includes the supervised practice of ministry and substantial ministerial leadership). Those possessing a Master of Divinity degree should have a “B” or (3.0) cumulative average. For applicants possessing a Master’s degree, a transcript assessment will determine what areas of theology may be required to achieve equivalency. Ordinarily, equivalency requires additional courses in the areas of Systematic Theology, Scripture, Pastoral Theology, History and Liturgical-Sacramental Theology. Saint Mary Seminary has the right and responsibility to determine if it will accept credits for work completed at other accredited graduate institutions.
2. Professional: After completing a minimum of three years of full-time ministry, an applicant must currently be assigned to a place of ministry that can serve as a field context throughout the duration of the program.

3. Ecclesial: Applicants are to present a memo of understanding to co-workers stating their intentions to pursue doctoral studies. A letter of recommendation from one’s ecclesiastical superior is required.

Overview of the Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) Program

The degree requires the completion of 30 semester hours of academic course work along with successful participation in Project Forums scheduled each semester.

Application and Admission Process

Qualified candidates are required to complete a four-part application that includes all graduate transcripts, biographical information, synopsis of ministerial involvement, supporting materials for the memo of understanding, and a letter of recommendation from one’s ecclesiastical superior or from an individual in the ministry setting who can attest to the candidate’s suitability for the Doctor of Ministry program. In addition to these materials, a personal interview is scheduled with the Admissions Committee. Deadline for submitting the application for the fall semester is June 30th.

Requirements (30 semester hours)

- Six core area courses (12 hours)
- Theological Research and Writing Courses (12 hours)
- D.Min. Pastoral Project (6 hours)
- Project Forums
- Yearly evaluation and assessment

Curriculum Overview:

The core curriculum reflects the breadth of pastoral competencies necessary for contemporary ministry and provides possible areas for student concentration. In the first three semesters, students participate in two 900-level seminar courses each semester at the professional (ministerial) and doctoral (academic) level that integrate areas of Spirituality, Systematic Theology, Scripture, and Liturgy, with applications to ministerial leadership.

Theological Research and Writing Courses generally include:

- PAS 959 Studying Congregations, Methods, and Research (2 credits)
- PAS 980 Review of Theological Literature I (2 credits)
- PAS 981 Review of Theological Literature II (2 credits)
• PAS 982 Theological Writing I (2 credits)
• PAS 983 Theological Writing II (4 credits)
• PAS 9-900 Independent Study, if necessary (2 credits)
• Students may take up to 6 credit hours of graduate course work in theology in a related field that may assist them in their project area.

Pastoral Project for the Doctor of Ministry (6 credit hours)
• PAS 990 and PAS 991 focus on completion of the written project with their faculty Mentor.

Pastoral Project Extension
In the first semester of the third year, the student and faculty mentor may determine that an extension will be necessary to complete the project. In this case, the student registers for PAS 992 as a continuance of the academic program, but without additional credit. The student must complete the project in no more than one academic year following the completion of the third year of the program.

Yearly assessment and evaluation
Students receive a letter grade at the end of each semester for each course. In addition, the faculty gives a qualitative summary of the students’ academic competencies demonstrated in the semester course work. At the close of the academic year, students should review their overall performance file with the Academic Dean. Students must maintain a “B” (3.0) average. Students who fail to maintain a 3.0 G.P.A. or who earn a grade of “F” in a course are subject to dismissal from the Doctor of Ministry program.

The Seminary reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student at any time who fails to give satisfactory evidence of academic ability, earnestness of purpose or active cooperation in all the requirements for acceptable scholarship in the Doctor of Ministry program.

Yearly Colleague Experiences

Program Orientations
There will be one orientation for Doctor of Ministry students prior to the first year after admission. This orientation at the beginning of the program defines the parameters and philosophy and gives an overview of the Doctor of Ministry program.

Project Forum
The Project Forum assists students in developing a solid Doctor of Ministry project. Students will meet 3 times each semester as cohort groups. These forums discuss techniques in research design, help individual learners develop their theological and bibliographical foundations, hone computer skills, and create a strategic plan for the project’s implementation and evaluation.

Communal Prayer
Students have an opportunity to attend liturgy with the Seminary community on Wednesday during the fall and spring semesters.

The Final Phase: The Doctor of Ministry Project
Students completing all of the required course work map out a prospectus of their project with individual faculty mentors who direct students through the final phases of their doctoral projects.

The Doctoral Project
Students demonstrate the integration of their doctoral work through a final project implemented from their ministerial context as field research. The project focus evaluates and improves an existing area of ministry or develops a new program based on a ministerial need.

Institutional Review Board Compliance Review
All Doctor of Ministry research projects (and in some cases, Master of Arts projects) are subject to review by the Institutional Review Board (IRB). Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology has entered into an agreement with John Carroll University to conduct this compliance review. The IRB assists in a review of Doctor of Ministry or Master of Arts Project proposals along with surveys or instruments that will be used for specific research on human subjects. The John Carroll University IRB will issue a review of the project and forward it to the Academic Dean of Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology. The IRB process must be completed prior to the student’s scheduled prospectus symposium.

The primary goal of Institutional Review is to protect the rights and welfare of human subjects when they participate in surveys, interviews, or focus groups that result in systematized, generalizable knowledge intended for but not limited to publication or other public dissemination. The protocol for Institutional Review is based on federal regulation and Christian ethics, as well as informed consent.

The purpose of an informed consent is to help investigators protect research participants by informing them about the nature of the research, including the procedures to be followed and any associated risks or benefits to participation. In compliance with federal regulations, the IRB carefully reviews informed consent documents.

Project Review is generally required for the following:
1. Survey, interview, focus group & observational research involving human subjects
2. Evaluation Research, e.g. data is collected on a new course, technique, or pilot study to determine the effectiveness of the material or the manner in which material is collected, etc.
3. Some oral history, especially if it is to be published; e.g. topics that might cause distress or breach of privacy, etc.

Process
1. Faculty and Students must participate in CITI Training (Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative) online.
2. Students submit research proposal to IRB Office at JCU prior to Prospectus Symposium
3. Students will receive a response: Does the project come under IRB jurisdiction or not?
   a. Exempt
   b. Expedited
   c. Full Board Review

The Doctor of Ministry project forum director will guide students through the IRB review process. Further information regarding IRB policies, procedures, and sample forms may be found at http://sites.jcu.edu/research/pages/irb/
Candidacy Symposium

The official approval to implement the Doctor of Ministry Project is given at the conclusion of this symposium. Successful candidates will have synthesized the theological basis of their projects with an annotated bibliography and final research design. They will have received input from peers and direction from their faculty mentors. Students now prepare for project implementation, analysis and evaluation.

Project Colloquium

The colloquium allows students to present their completed project to the learning community. The faculty advisor, readers and peers are able to support the candidate’s project and assess its overall contribution to the field of ministry.

Protocol for the Colloquium

In consultation with the faculty mentor and readers, the student schedules the date and time of the colloquium with the Registrar. The student should notify the Registrar of the number of guests expected. The student needs to contact the library to arrange for the use of any audio-visual equipment if needed.

The colloquium is conducted as follows: the student presents a 30-minute overview of his or her project highlighting the focus and aims of the project, key elements of its theological grounding (or theoretical foundation), research methods and brief description of the project implementation in the ministerial context, analysis and evaluation of findings, and pastoral insights gained that reflect the depth of theological insight in relation to ministry.

Following the presentation, the committee engages the candidate in a conversation on his or her advanced understanding and integration of ministry in relation to the various theological disciplines, the critical interaction of ministry, theory, and practice as it is evident in the pastoral project, and the contribution of the project to practical theology.

The committee may invite others present to ask questions or make comments.

At the end of the 90-minute discussion, the committee meets for a short time to discuss and grade the student’s overall project. Using the degree program rubric, the student meets with his or her Committee after their deliberations to receive his or her final vote.

When a student’s work reflects outstanding integration, exceptional aptitude, excellence and originality both in the written project, oral presentation, and dialogue, the Committee may award “pass with honors.”

When the student has demonstrated above average integration, aptitude, and competence in the respective field, in the written project, oral presentation, and dialogue, the Committee may award the vote of “pass.”

A student who receives a failing vote by the Committee must reschedule a colloquium during one of the next two semesters. The student will have the option to (1) choose a new format for the colloquium, (2) change his or her Advisor and have a new Committee appointed, or (3) continue to work with the same format but address concerns and implement recommendations from the previous colloquium. A student receives only one opportunity to reschedule a colloquium.

At the successful conclusion of the colloquium, the student must submit three copies of the written project to the librarian to be accessioned in the Seminary library and submitted for copyright and publication.

Tuition for the Doctoral Program

Costs for the doctoral program are in keeping with generally accepted tuition and program fees for a degree on this level. Costs for the total program are calculated on six semesters. Tuition for summer seminars is included in the semester billing. Payment plans may be designed in consultation with the Academic Dean and Finance Office. Students are billed every semester with costs subject to change.

Those students needing more than the six semesters to complete the program are charged a continuation fee each additional semester in order to maintain active status in the program. Students may consult the Registrar for the current tuition schedule program.
Continuing Education Students (non-degree seeking) and Transient Students (enrolled in other schools)

Students who meet the academic requirements may apply for admission to take specific courses for credit or audit. These students are classified as Continuing Education students.

Applicants follow these procedures:

• Contact the Registrar to schedule an initial interview.

• Once approved as a qualified candidate, an application form may be requested from the Registrar or downloaded from the website (http://www.stmarysem.edu).

• Request that an official transcript of credits earned from each college, university or graduate school previously attended be is sent directly to the Seminary.

• Complete the online course registration form and submit the course deposit.

• Transient Students from other schools must have the written permission of the Academic Dean or other official of their school before they will be admitted to courses at Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology.

Collaborative Programs

While Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology recognizes that its primary concern is to prepare men for priestly service in the Diocese of Cleveland, it realizes that it possesses a wealth of theological resources in its faculty, library and in its associations with theological schools. The Seminary is willing to make these resources available to local communities. In addition, the Seminary remains open to the possibility of undertaking collaborative programs of continuing education and formation that are jointly sponsored with other educational institutions. It is also willing to cooperate in programs offered by other educational institutions.
INTRODUCTORY REMARKS

The course numbering at Saint Mary Seminary and Graduate School of Theology indicates the following:

- Courses numbered 500–799 are graduate level required courses or electives for those pursuing the Master of Divinity degree and the Master of Arts degree.
- Courses numbered 800–899 are select courses for M.Div. Equivalency.
- Courses numbered 900–999 are Doctor of Ministry degree courses.

BIBLICAL STUDIES DEPARTMENTAL OBJECTIVES

The student:
- develops familiarity with the content, origin, and development of the Bible.
- knows and uses the principal tools and appropriate hermeneutical methods.
- engages the text as both ancient literature and Word of God, written within the tradition of the Faith Community.
- appreciates and relates scripture to both personal and pastoral life.
- recognizes the importance of study of the scriptural texts as an abiding source for preaching, catechesis, and spiritual growth.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

SC 505 — Basics of Biblical Greek
This course will introduce the students to a few basics of Koine Greek grammar, with a special emphasis on vocabulary words that are important for theological studies. Although full reading proficiency is beyond the scope of this course, by the end of the semester the student will certainly be able to easily read and pronounce Greek words, look them up in a lexicon or theological dictionary, and understand their usage with the help of a computer bible study program. 2 Credits

SC 510 — Biblical Hermeneutics
This course introduces the history, methods, and philosophical-theological groundings of scriptural interpretation from a Catholic perspective. The course will attempt to make conscious and explicit a sampling of the available avenues of interpretation by which understanding a scriptural text is possible. Both historical and post-critical methodologies will be explored. A survey of the attempt to understand the historical Jesus will be included. (This course serves as a prerequisite for all biblical courses.) 2 Credits

SC 511 — Pentateuch and Historical Books
The course introduces students to both the Pentateuch (Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy) and the two Old Testament “histories,” the so-called Deuteronomic History (Joshua, Judges, 1-2 Samuel, and 1-2 Kings), and Chronicler’s History (1-2 Chronicles, Ezra, and Nehemiah). These books will be treated with attention to their historical and cultural backgrounds as well as to their literary, theological, canonical, and contemporary dimensions. 3 Credits

SC 512 — Prophetic Literature
This course studies the canonical prophetic literature (except Daniel) considered within two contexts: ancient Jewish socio-religious history and the later Jewish and Christian appropriation of the tradition. The course will consider the phenomenon of prophecy, its literary expression, and the editorial/canonical history of these prophetic books. The course will focus on the major and minor prophets. Attention will be given to the themes, emphases, and major texts of each book. 2 Credits

SC 513 — Psalms and Wisdom
This course will first examine the formation, use, and significance of the book of Psalms. A number of individual psalms will be studied, with special attention not only to their literary genre but also to their poetic design, location within the Psalter, theological value, and reinterpretation in Israel and in the Christian Church. Attention will next turn to the Wisdom literature (Proverbs, Job, Qohelet, Sirach, Wisdom and the Song of Songs) for a consideration of their origin, literary structure, and theological significance. 2 Credits

SC 514 — Synoptic Gospels and Acts
This course serves as a special introduction to the Gospels of Mark, Luke and Matthew. An exploration of the synoptic problem, redaction, and form criticism provides tools for understanding the historical background and literary elements required for interpretation in the light of the Church’s tradition and faith. The Apostolic Church and the Kerygma in the Acts of the Apostles will serve as a landscape for the course. Students will use selected passages of special doctrinal and liturgical import for exegesis. 3 Credits

SC 515 — Pauline Literature and Catholic Epistles
This course begins with an overview of Paul’s background, encounter with Jesus, missionary activity, letter writing and theological perspectives. The course continues with an in-depth examination of the letters of Paul with exegesis of select texts of doctrinal and liturgical import. This course includes an introduction and exegesis of selected passages of James, 1 and II Peter, Jude, and Hebrews. 2 Credits

SC 516 — Johannine Literature
This course offers an in-depth study of the Gospel of John. An exploration of its distinctiveness among the Gospels together with its literary and theological structure provides the basis for exegesis of selected texts having doctrinal and liturgical import. Included in this course are the Letters of John and an introduction to the Book of Revelation with exegesis of selected passages relating to its genre and interpretation. 2 Credits with the aid of important commentaries, the significance of selected passages will be explored. Among the texts that will be given close examination are the so-called “messianic texts” and the Servant Songs. 2 Credits

SC 530 — Neglected Books of the Old Testament
This course will focus attention on seven books that are frequently neglected in biblical studies. In addition to the “Megillot” or five Scrolls (Song of Songs, Ruth, Lamentations, Ecclesiastes and Esther), books that are each associated with a particular feast of the Jewish calendar, the course examines the books of Jonah and Tobit. 2 Credits

SC 532 — The Gospel of Mark: History, Formation, and Message
The gospel of Mark is commonly recognized as the earliest gospel and a source for the gospels of Matthew and Luke. The aim of this course is to explore numerous theories that attempt to explain the origins of this gospel and to explore the various approaches to an understanding of Marcan theology. 2 Credits

SC 554 — The Gospel of Matthew
Matthew’s gospel is often called “the most Jewish of the gospels.” This course begins with an exploration of contemporary historical research on first-century Judaism and next focuses on the literary and theological perspectives of the gospel. While reading the entire Gospel, students will explore scholarly issues on the interpretation of this Gospel, its importance in the development of Church teaching. 2 Credits

SC 555 — The Gospel of Luke
This study of the third gospel begins with an introduction to the scholarly debate about its origin, purpose and theology. The course continues with a systematic reading of the gospel. Attention is given to Lucan themes in the light of the book of Acts of the Apostles. 2 Credits

SC 558 — Parables of Jesus
This is a lecture and seminar course on the Synoptic parables. After a review of the history of interpretation and recent scholarship, the parables will be studied as stories, as vehicles of theology, and as a means of proclamation. Attention will be given to the use of the parables in each gospel. A major thrust of the course is the detailed exploration of selected parables. 2 Credits

SC 560 — The Passion Narratives
The accounts of Jesus’ passion demonstrate striking similarities and differences among the four gospels. It is from these accounts that we derive our clearest understanding of the circumstances and significance of Jesus’ death. The course will examine the four passion accounts of the gospels by uncovering their historical roots and theological perspectives. Discussion among the students and their own personal research will strive to identify possible aspects of the passion story that would serve liturgical proclamation. 2 Credits

SC 565 — The Resurrection in the New Testament
The resurrection of Jesus stands at the center of Christian faith. This course will trace the emergence of the belief in resurrection within Judaism, the conviction of the early church that Jesus had been raised, and why that resurrection was in fact the announcement that the Reign of God had begun. Passages in the gospels and letters of the New Testament will be analyzed to construct a synthetic picture of what resurrection means and how it can and must still be proclaimed in our present world. 2 Credits

SC 570 — The Acts of the Apostles
This course will introduce the student to the Acts of the Apostles. Beginning with the diachronic approach to establish the origins and historical details about the composition, the student will become familiar with the characters, setting, and plot behind the message conveyed. Finally the course will explore how the Acts of the Apostles has helped shape Christian theology and spirituality for centuries and remains relevant for the project of the New Evangelization. 2 Credits

SC 575 — The Letter to the Hebrews
This letter is one of the most profound works of theological reflection in the New Testament, reflecting deeply on what it means to call Jesus Son of God and Eternal Messiah. It is also particularly influential in the development of the Sacrament of Holy Orders, establishing Jesus as the Eternal Priest and Sacrifice. This course will explore all of these rich theological and sacramental themes through selected exegesis and class discussion. 2 Credits

SC 580 — The Book of Revelation
This course is a close study of the last book of the New Testament, attentive to the historical context, the apocalyptic horizon, and the centrality of the paschal mystery, which provides its primary hermeneutical key. In fact, far from offering a calendar of future events, the book... of Revelation is a celebration of the transforming power of the paschal mystery for the followers of Jesus and for all of creation. It also contributes significantly to spiritual growth, preaching, and catechesis. 2 Credits

SC 635 — The Uses of Scripture in Theology
This seminar is an inspection of the dynamic relationship between Scripture, Tradition and theology as they interact under the living guidance of the Magisterium. Specific attention will be given to different models of Scriptural usage employed by various theological approaches. 2 Credits

SC 640 — Jesus’ Jewishness
This course investigates several aspects of the now fully established identity of Jesus as a 1st century Galilean Jewish apocalyptic and prophetic figure, recognized by his followers as Messiah and Son of God. Implications for Christian self-understanding, relations with Judaism, preaching and catechesis will be constantly on the horizon. The course is designed as a seminar with emphasis on reading, personal research, class presentations, and discussions. 2 Credits

SC 7-700 (for M.Div. or M.A.) — Independent Study
Independent study and research course for degree-seeking students under faculty supervision. 2 Credits

SC 910 (D.Min.) — Pastoral Strategies in the Letters of Paul
The goal of this course is to refresh the participants’ appreciation of the genuine letters of Paul and to apprise students of recent debates regarding interpretation of Paul’s Letters. The course will strive to connect the pastoral and administrative practices of Paul with the pastoral insights of class members. The course easily divides into two parts. The first part will overview the writings of the Paul and the various attempts current today which seek to explain his theology and practice. The second part will consist of a close reading of First Corinthians. 2 Credits

SC 915 (D.Min.) — Biblical Foundations of Spirituality
This seminar explores themes and images of God presented in both the Old and New Testaments for the foundations of spirituality in today's world. Students will select various texts for reflection and analysis for personal spiritual development and use in ministry. 2 Credits

SC 9-900 (D.Min.) — Independent Study
Independent study and research course for degree-seeking students under faculty supervision. 2 Credits

LITURGICAL AND SACRAMENTAL THEOLOGY DEPARTMENTAL OBJECTIVES

The student:
- exhibits a familiarity with the evolution of the Church’s sacramental-liturgical tradition.
- displays an understanding of and an ability to work with the Church’s ritual texts and to reflect theologically on the faith dimension of the liturgical ritual.
- incarnates the experience of conversion mediated through the Church’s liturgy.
- discloses the ministerial and collaborative skills needed for the pastoral preparation and celebration of the Church’s liturgy.

* Note: LIT 590ma designates a core course for Master of Arts (M.A.) non-resident students.

LIT 505 — Basic Music Skills
The purpose of this remedial course is to review the fundamentals of music. The course covers rhythm and pitch notation and other basics necessary to read a musical score. Students will perform simple melodies on the keyboard. No Credit (Pass/Fail Grade)

LIT 560 — Liturgical and Sacramental Theology
This course serves as a theological introduction to the liturgical and sacramental life of the Roman Catholic Church. The course will consider the symbolic nature of liturgy, the sacramental principle and its importance in the form of faith celebrations. Critical reflection on liturgical practices will be linked to the liturgical tradition and Christian spirituality. Underlying commonalities of the sacraments will be considered. 3 Credits

LIT 571 — Liturgical Preaching I
This course explores the wisdom of the Church with regard to a theology of preaching, with special attention given to the post conciliar documents of the universal and local church concerning the preaching of the Sunday homily. Attention will also be given to the wisdom of theologians and preachers as students become familiar with characteristics of good liturgical preaching. 1 Credit

LIT 573 — Liturgical Preaching II
This course proposes a practical model for liturgical preaching that will serve as a standard for the students’ preaching. Students will learn the process of homily construction, moving through personal reflection on the lectionary texts, exegetical study, and the identification of one clear and relevant message for preaching — all in the context of the living experience of the assembly. Students will employ a tensive element in their preaching that will engage the assembly and imagine relevant and effective ways to illustrate their message through story, example, and symbol. Basic delivery skills will be discussed, practiced, and critiqued. 2 Credits

LIT 575 — Liturgical Preaching III
This preaching practicum will offer students the opportunity to further develop their preaching skills by preparing and delivering five preached reflections during the course of their pastoral internship. Following each preaching event, the interns will return to the seminary with a recording of their reflection for a coaching session with their classmates and the instructor. Coaching sessions will provide evaluation and feedback to encourage growth and development in effective preaching. (Prerequisites: LIT 571 and LIT 573: Limited to priesthood candidates) 1 Credit
LIT 576 — Liturgical Preaching IV
This course will provide a preaching practicum to further hone the students’ preaching skills. Students will prepare and deliver seven homilies for Sundays in their home parishes. Following each preaching event, the students will return to the seminary with a recording of their reflection for evaluation and constructive feedback from their classmates and the instructor. (Prerequisite: LIT 575: Limited to priesthood candidates) 1 Credit

LIT 577 — Liturgical Preaching V
This course is designed for ordained transitional deacons. Deacons will be encouraged to engage members of the assembly in reflecting with them on the scriptural texts prior to preaching through a form of Lectio Divina. Deacons will prepare and deliver seven homilies for the Sunday Eucharist in their assigned parishes. Following each preaching event, the deacons will return to the seminary with a video recording of their homilies for a coaching session in the classroom. Coaching sessions will provide the preacher with evaluation and feedback. (Prerequisite: LIT 575 and 576: Limited to priesthood candidates) 1 Credit

LIT 580 — Holy Orders
This course defines the Sacrament of Holy Orders within the mission and ministries of Christ and His Church, a theology of vocation, and the specific call to sacramental and pastoral ministry as an ordained priest vis-a-vis the priest’s unique sacramental character. The course considers the Roman Catholic Church’s theology of the sacrament of Holy Orders, its historical development, and its relationship to the Christian community. The course will examine the liturgical rituals of ordination and their description of the theology and ministry foundational to the episcopal, presbyteral, and diaconal Orders. In particular, the course will explore issues relative to the diocesan priesthood (e.g., spirituality, sacramental ministry, the priest’s relationship to his bishop and the laity, priestly lifestyle, etc.). 2 Credits

LIT 583 — Marriage: Liturgy and Sacrament
This course defines the Sacrament of Marriage within the mission and ministries of Christ and His Church. The course considers the theology of this sacrament, its historical development, and its liturgical celebration. It examines the vocation of marriage from the perspective of its mission and witness to the Christian community. The course explores some contemporary issues related to marriage in the context of today’s culture and society in light of the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church. 1 Credit

LIT 584 — Liturgy and the Art of Ritual
This course offers a holistic approach to celebrating the Rites of the Catholic Church in a manner faithful to its Tradition and in service to the common spiritual good of its faith communities. Emphasis is given to preparing for parochial liturgies, the roles of parish liturgical music and art, liturgical ministries, liturgical law, and pastoral issues. 2 Credits

LIT 588 — Baptism and Confirmation
This course presents theological and pastoral consideration of the Roman Catholic Church’s rituals of baptism, taking as its normative point of departure the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults as the focus. Included will be an examination of the sources and development of the Church’s initiatory practice and discussion of pertinent contemporary pastoral issues. 2 Credits

LIT 589 — Penance and Anointing (with practicum)
The first half of the course provides an overview of the theological foundations for the sacraments of Penance and the Anointing of the Sick. Consideration is given to the theological basis and development of these two sacraments throughout the ages. The second half of the course is reserved to discuss pastoral and moral issues in the context of the confessional. A practicum is used to simulate methods and pastoral skills needed to celebrate the sacrament within a confessional setting. (Limited to priesthood candidates.) 3 Credits

LIT 590 (LIT 590ma) — Eucharist
This course is a study of the Eucharist as the center and focus of the Christian community and personal Christian life. Examined are the testimonies of the Scriptures, the Fathers, Church Councils and modern theologians. The issues of the reformers are raised along with present ecumenical concerns. The various presences of Jesus and their implications are noted. (Prerequisite: LIT 560) 3 Credits

LIT 593 — Presiding Skills
The course studies basic skills necessary to preside effectively, with special consideration to the musical role of the Presider. Included will be ritual enactments of Baptism and Marriage and a thorough study of the ordinary chants of the Liturgy: Introductory and Dismissal Rites, Orations, Prefaces, Eucharistic Prayers, and Presider’s chants for Holy Week. In addition to the chants of the Roman Missal, other musical settings will be explored. The course will provide practical opportunities for students to work on specific presidential skills and to perform ministerial chants. (Limited to priesthood candidates or by permission.) 2 Credits

LIT 595 — Liturgical Leadership
This practicum assists, prepares, and forms the student to minister as presider at the Church’s liturgical prayer through a prayerful and intellectual examination and enactment of sacramental-liturgical rituals of the Roman Rite. (Limited to priesthood candidates) 2 Credits

LIT 625 — The Transfigured Brain: The Relationship between Brain Science, Ritual and Mysticism
This course will explore the intersection of neurology, psychology, philosophy, ritual practice, and the spiritual-mystical life to frame a dialogue between the contemporary research of neuroscientists, psychologists, and theology. Beginning with the science of the brain, this course will explore the dialectic relationship between contemporary developments in neuroscience and Christian theology, particularly in the areas of liturgy, ritual, meditation and mysticism. 3 Credits

LIT 630 — Sacraments and the Christian Mystical Tradition
By examining the lives, contributions, and writings of a representative group of Christian mystics, this course will explore the ecclesial, ministerial, and incarnational dimensions of the Christian mystical tradition through the lens of the Church’s liturgical-sacramental tradition. 2 Credits

LIT 635 — The Liturgical Year
This course considers the historical development of the yearly liturgical cycle. Special consideration is given to the mystery of Christ celebrated in time known as Sanc- toral Cycles. The development, theological significance, and pastoral value of feasts and seasons will be examined. 2 Credits

LIT 637 — Sacramental Living and Discernment of Spirits
This course will explore various approaches to discernment and their application to living a sacramental life. Particular emphasis will be given to exploring the teachings of Teresa of Jesus, John of the Cross, and Ignatius of Loyola in dialogue with the Church’s contemporary sacramental-liturgical praxis and pastoral care. 2 Credits

LIT 670 — Spanish for Eucharistic Presidents
Students will review the Liturgy of the Roman rite in Spanish. Special attention will be given to oral pronunciation, with an understanding of orations, prefaces, and Eucharistic prayers in English equivalence. A basic introduction of Spanish grammar will be necessary. 2 Credits

LIT 600-x — Seminar on Special Topics in Liturgical-Sacramental Theology
Students will have an opportunity to research specific issues in liturgy or study the writings of a specific theologian to assess their impact on the Church’s liturgical tradition and ecclesiology. Topics for this seminar course will vary according to student interest. (Prerequisite: LIT 560) 2 Credits

LIT 7-700 (for M.Div. or M.A.) — Independent Study
Independent study and research course for degree-seeking students under faculty supervision. 3 Credits

LIT 980 (D.Min.) — Ritual, Mysticm, and Conversion
This seminar course explores the dialectic relationship between ritual and mysticism as ways of breaking open human consciousness to the experience of Divine Mys- tery. This course of study proposes that ritual behavior and mystic attentiveness profoundly influence full, conscious, and active participation in worship and faith

LIT 988 (D.Min.) — Worship and Culture: Relationship and Response

Worship takes place in cultural contexts, which it both expresses and must critique. This course examines contemporary theories of culture, liturgical and theological assessments of the relationship between worship and culture, and the implications of this relationship both for how we understand and how we seek to shape the ex-

Pope Francis gives a new and prophetic direction to what has been called the New Evangelization in today’s Church.
This will have significant ramifications for preaching in our post-modern world, which itself must be both new and prophetic, from the “kind of preaching which falls to each of us as a daily responsibility” (Evangelii Gaudium, n.

PASTORAL THEOLOGY
DEPARTMENTAL OBJECTIVES

The student:
· learns, discusses, and evaluates basic concepts, principles and practices of ministry as related to the Catholic Tradition.
· engages in theological reflection of pastoral experiences in order to learn from action and internalize pastoral experiences in order to critique and improve one’s personal skills for ministry.
· demonstrates the ability necessary to make pastoral judgments in counseling situations, spiritual direction and leadership decisions made upon differing circumstances and realities.
· interprets pastoral situations and makes adjustments to differing circumstances and realities while remaining faithful to one’s conscience and faith tradition.

ORIENTATION AND FORMATION OF INTERNATIONAL SEMINARIANS

The Program of the Propaedeutic Year

PAS 501 — Formation for Fraternal Communion

Goal: Personal formation and integration into the semiinary community — Human and Community Accompaniment. This community leads the seminarian, through ordination, to become part of the ‘family’ of the presbyterate, at the service of a particular community. 3 Credits

PAS 502 — Discernment, Prayer, and Priestly Identity

Goal: Spiritual Accompaniment — Introduction to the spirituality of the diocesan priest. The seminarian is in-trouced to the spiritual practices which are foundational to the priest’s life of prayer. In addition, the liturgical and devotional life of the seminary community are presented as normative and formative. 3 Credits

PAS 503 — English Language Proficiency for Graduate Theological Studies

Goal: Intellectual Accompaniment — Classes are provided, either on campus, at a certified ELS site, or with the assistance of a certified ELS instructor, to assist the international seminarian in acquiring English proficiency in preparation for graduate theological studies and ongoing priestly formation. Speech therapy for accent reduction is available as needed. 3 Credits

PAS 504 — Introduction to Pastoral Ministry in an American Catholic Parish

Goal: Cultural Competence for Priestly Ministry — Accompaniment for Pastoral Ministry: The program prepares candidates for priestly ministry, either incardi-nated in the Diocese of Cleveland, or returning to priestly ministry in their native country. 3 Credits

PAS 510 — Pastoral Spanish I and II

This two-semester course is designed as an introduction to Pastoral Spanish for nonnative speakers with little or no background in Spanish. It also serves as a refresher for students who have had some experience with Spanish but would like to develop their skills in a non-threatening environment. This course will have five major objectives:
1) the development of pronunciation skills, 2) familiarity with short prayers, simple rituals, and the parts of the Mass in Spanish, 3) basic grammar, 4) the development of basic conversational skills, and 5) the acquisition of an introductory-level vocabulary. 2 Credits/Semester

PAS 552 — Pastoral Counseling

This course will employ presentations, discussions, case studies, and role-playing to assist the students to integrate counseling theory and techniques. Topics of boundary issues, grief counseling, addiction and family counseling will be considered. This agenda provides exposure to the various pastoral issues, allows for limited exploration of how to initially handle conversation, analyze the issue, and make referral. 3 Credits

PAS 553 — Introduction to Christian Spirituality

This course introduces the student to the beauty and depth of Christian spirituality. Some of the aspects of Christian spirituality to which the student will be introduced are the nature of Christian spirituality, asceticism, mysticism and pastoral spirituality; mystical insights by some of the great Catholic “Doctors” of the Church, prayer, and forgiveness; St. Ignatius’ Rules for the Discernment of Spirits. 3 Credits
PAS 556 — Evangelization and Catechesis
This course surveys the principles of Catholic Education in light of the Church's missionary mandate, the new evangelization, and the pedagogy of God. An ecclesial approach to catechetical methodology will be rooted in Sacred Scripture and in the Catechism of the Catholic Church and take into account selected aspects of educational theory. A special segment of the course will focus on the unique mission of the Catholic School. The course prepares the seminarian for the field education practicum in the Catholic School. 2 Credits

PAS 560 — Canon Law I
A general introduction to Church law, its relationship to theology, and its role in the Church is offered in this course, including principles of interpretation as well as basic canonical concepts of Book I. Topics from Book II, including rights and responsibilities of laity, religious, and clergy; ecclesial structures of collegiality and shared responsibility at the parish, diocesan, episcopal, and universal levels, with special focus on the local Church. A brief introduction is given to the power of governance, the Church's teaching office, and the sacraments of initiation. 3 Credits

PAS 561 — Canon Law II
Book IV and the canons regarding Penance and Anointing, Holy Orders and special emphasis on Marriage are treated in this course. Pastoral care, preparation and celebration of marriage, plus canonical grounds for nullity and dissolution will be discussed. The student will be introduced to the practical handling of cases and procedures when dealing with the diocesan chancery or tribunal. The course will provide students with the necessary canonical knowledge regarding preparation and celebration of the sacraments and other acts of divine worship. 3 Credits

PAS 563 — Seminar on Spiritual Direction
Building upon a thorough knowledge of Christian spirituality, the process of spiritual growth and the discernment of spirits, this seminar will offer a practical understanding of the nature, principles and styles of the art of spiritual direction. Through role-playing, the student will receive firsthand experience in spiritually directing another person in the ways of God and have an opportunity to develop skills needed for the practice of spiritual direction. 2 Credits

PAS 575 — Pastoral Administration
This seminar course provides fifth year seminarians with a “pastor's tool box” that prepares the future priest for parish administration and management. Specifically, the course will review leadership skills necessary for parish ministry as well as discuss administrative responsibilities such as hiring, evaluating and terminating parish personnel, creating and reviewing parish budgets, strategic planning and assessing parish resources. 2 Credits

PAS 580 — Pastoral Implications of the New Evangelization
The Second Vatican Council states that it is the mission of the Church to witness, evangelize and sanctify the world. This course will consider how today's Catholics fulfill this mission as they live and practice the faith witnessed for two millennia. The New Evangelization will be examined through the lens of scripture, baptism, spirituality, the theological tradition, the teachings of Saint John Paul II, and the cultural context of the American Church to identify a pastoral vision for this mission. 2 Credits

PAS 652 — Selected Topics in Pastoral Counseling
This course examines the more complex, less routine issues that may surface for the parish leader engaged in pastoral counseling. (Prerequisite: PAS 552 or equivalent) 2 Credits

PAS 659 — Selected Topics in Marriage and Family Life
This course examines the recent issues in family life from the perspective of current sociological findings and specific dialogue with current magisterial teachings. 2 Credits

PAS 661 — Selected Topics in Canon Law
(Prerequisite: PAS 560 or its equivalent. Consult instructor) 2 Credits

PAS 669 — Selected Topics in Christian Spirituality
This course explores the themes (i.e. forms of prayer, spiritual disciplines, abandonment, contemplation, and apostolic action) taken from the history of Christian Spirituality from among the Patristic, Medieval, and Contemporary spiritual writers from the East and West. 2 Credits

PAS 7-700 (for M.Div. or M.A.) — Independent Study
Independent study and research course for degree-seeking students under faculty supervision. 2 Credits

PAS 905 (D.Min.) — Theological Reflection on Ministry
This seminar introduces the Doctor of Ministry student to an advanced understanding of the nature and purposes of ministry in the Roman Catholic tradition, as well as skills for enhanced leadership competency in the practice of ministry. The students engage in theological reflection leading to continued growth in spiritual maturity and ministerial capacity. 2 Credits (or 4 Credits)

PAS 951 (D.Min.) — The Sacramental Templates of Parish Life
This course will explore sacramentality and sacramental celebration as important foundations for a parish’s self-understanding of its role in the life of believers and its mission as a community of faith. In particular, the course will examine what it means to be an initiating community, a Eucharistic community, and a penitential and reconciling community. The course will help pastors and parish ministers to grasp the theological implications of the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Reconciliation for the way a parish authentically structures its communal life and charts its goals and mission. 2 Credits

PAS 953 (D.Min.) — The Catholic Response to the New Atheism
This course examines how society is increasingly engaged in a ‘culture war’ between secular atheism and Christianity. A militant ‘New Atheism’ attacks Christianity and marginalizes religion, promoting relativism and scientific materialism. An important Catholic response is the ‘New Evangelization’ based on Love, Hope, and Truth. The course examines ways to evangelize the emerging Post Christian society and evaluate practical implications for personal and pastoral ministry. 2 Credits

PAS 954 (D.Min.) — Technology in Ministry: The Theological Dialogue
This course outlines the theological and social justice foundation for the Church’s engagement with social communication by surveying relevant Church documents, beginning with the Second Vatican Council’s decree Inter Multa. Students will apply the principles of theologically-based pastoral planning to the integration of technology in ministry to further the Church’s mission of the New Evangelization. 2 Credits

PAS 957 (D.Min.) — Models of Adult Learning: Catechetical and Theological Issues
This seminar explores various models of adult learning from the perspectives of theological issues and pastoral discipline. Participants discuss such issues from an ecumenical perspective with regard to contemporary culture and theology. 2 Credits

PAS 959 (D.Min.) — Studying Congregations: Theological and Research
This seminar presents research methods for design, operation, analysis, and evaluation of studies within the ministerial setting, the parish and congregation. Special consideration is given to research methods such as focus groups, case study, and surveys along with qualitative and quantitative procedures used for data analysis. The course prepares the students to meet the requirements of the Institutional Review Board protocol. 2 Credits

PAS 966 — D.Min. Project Forum I (First year students)
This non-credit seminar meets over the course of two semesters and helps the student develop a theological and theoretical basis for their project. The seminar prepares the student to begin individual research and implementation strategies for the project. One forum outcome is a first draft of the second chapter that links theological grounding to their project’s focus. (Pass/Fail Grade)

PAS 967 — D.Min. Project Forum II (Second year students)
This non-credit seminar meets over the course of two semesters and helps the student develop a theological and theoretical basis for their project. The seminar prepares the student to begin individual research and implementation strategies for the project. One forum outcome is a first draft of the second chapter that links theological grounding to their project’s focus. (Pass/Fail Grade)

PAS 968 — D.Min. Project Forum III (Third year and extension students)
This non-credit seminar assists candidates with the writing and implementation process of their project. Students and faculty mentors meet throughout the two semesters in order to monitor the writing process, assist with organization of materials, and discuss evaluative methodologies. One outcome for this forum is to prepare the candidate for the final colloquium. (Pass/Fail Grade)

PAS 980 (D.Min.) — Review of Theological Literature I
This independent research process enables the student to review pertinent theological literature, theory, and studies surrounding the particular area of research. The process concludes with the collection of bibliographic entries, which grounds the research project. 2 Credits

PAS 981 (D.Min.) — Review of Theological Literature II
Continuation of PAS 980. 2 Credits

PAS 982 (D.Min.) — Theological Writing I
This independent study is guided by student’s mentor as he or she prepares to write the theological chapter that grounds the pastoral project. 2 Credits

PAS 983 (D.Min.) — Theological Writing II
Continuation of PAS 982. 4 Credits

PAS 990/991/992 (D.Min.) — The Pastoral Project
Students in the final phase of their Doctor of Ministry study are required to complete their pastoral project under the direction of a faculty mentor and two readers. Students receive up to three credit hours each semester while they are completing their project. Students may extend the pastoral project to a third semester for completion (PAS 992) without additional credits. 6 Credits (3 Credits Per Semester, Pass/Fail Grade)

PAS 999/991/992 (D.Min.) — The Pastoral Project for the Doctor of Ministry Program
Students in the final phase of their Doctor of Ministry study are required to complete their pastoral project under the direction of a faculty mentor and two readers. Students receive up to three credit hours each semester while they are completing their project. Students may extend the pastoral project to a third semester for completion (PAS 992) without additional credits. 6 Credits (3 Credits Per Semester, Pass/Fail Grade)

PAS 9-900 (for D.Min.) — Independent Study
Independent study and research course for degree-seeking students under faculty supervision. 2 Credits
FIELD EDUCATION

FE 550/551 — Parish Faith Formation Practicum I and II Semester
This practicum focuses on the experience of ministering in a local parish under the supervision of a priest or pastoral minister. The student engages in hands-on ministry with parishioners and pastoral staff through small group faith formation settings. During the first semester, students will participate in an adult faith formation program with a focus on integrated spirituality and praxis. During the second semester, students will demonstrate their learning by organizing and facilitating an adult faith formation program in their assigned parish.

The classroom component, which is held in conjunction with the practicum, orients a student to the structures and systems of parish life with a focus on creating and sustaining small group faith formation communities. Four times during each semester the student enters into pastoral reflection and theological supervision for the purpose of integrating ministry into life. 1 Credit/Semester

FE 561 — Catechesis and Evangelization Practicum
This practicum on catechesis and evangelization will occur at designated parochial schools under educational supervision. The student’s ability to minister as a priest catechist will be evaluated, and supervisors will offer insights on personal and professional growth in the act of catechesis. Opportunities will also be available for the class to meet and address student needs, questions, and issues about evangelization in the faith tradition. 1 Credit

FE 562/FE 563 — Pastoral Internship I and II Semester
The goal of Pastoral Internship is to provide an extended and intensive experience of pastoral ministry in a parish setting with significant supervision and evaluation. Through this experience, the student and the Seminary faculty will be better able to discern the gifts, skills, and attitudes of the student and to clarify their assessment of his potential for celibate priestly ministry. The Internship lets the student experience the lifestyle of a diocesan priest in rectory living and in parish activities and provides opportunities for the student to experience relationships in the priestly life, that is, with other priests, pastoral staff members, parishioners, local ministers, and friends. The Internship also lets the student experience parish structures of shared responsibility and accountability, that is, working with parish groups, organizations, lay ecclesial ministries, and other members of the pastoral staff. During the course of the Internship, students return to the Seminary for opportunities in theological reflection, spiritual formation, retreat and integration. (Limited to priesthood candidates) 2 Credits/Semester (Pass/Fail Grade)

FE 564/565 — Social and Ecumenical Ministry I and II Semester
Recognizing the mission of the parish and its place in the universal Church, there are some areas of ministry that need specialized attention and particular focus. Active participation in various ecclesiastical and social service agencies provides the basis for this practicum. A student is assigned to a particular social service agency, institution, or program that will assist in particular learning needs identified during internship. The placement generally offers an opportunity to minister in an ecumenical or social context of direct service needs, especially within the scope of Cleveland Catholic Charities. The student remains in the same placement for both the first and second semesters. Such ministry placements may include:

• Prison Ministry — visitation of inmates. One-on-one counseling, ecumenical prayer services, educational and spiritual guidance as well as working with families of inmates.
• Juvenile Detention Program — visitation of juveniles in detention programs. One-on-one or group counseling, ecumenical prayer services, assisting with the celebration of the Eucharist, educational and spiritual guidance of teenagers in detention settings.
• Transitional Housing — working with those in a transitional housing setting. Intake assessment of families, one-on-one counseling, learning the structure and system of social services. On-site visitation of persons in transitional settings.
• Addiction Recovery Program — dealing with chemically dependent persons. Intake assessments; one-on-one companionship, spiritual development exercises, family therapy, patient groups, social service personnel assistance, recovery groups.
• Hospice and Home Health Care — ministry to the terminally ill and their families. One-on-one counseling, spiritual guidance, pastoral care of the sick, preparation for death, assistance of patient care teams.
• Hispanic Ministry — ministry within and to the Hispanic community; emphasis on spiritual growth and educational ministry, individual, small and large group experiences.
• African-American Ministry — ministry to the African-American community, emphasis on spiritual growth and educational ministry, individual, small and large group experiences.
• Emotional Rehabilitation — experience the institutional setting of a facility dedicated to the care of patients and their families who suffer emotional distress. Involvement includes counseling, spiritual assistance, serving as a resource person to patients, families, and hospital personnel.
• Youth Ministry — ministry to young people in the high school setting. Includes team retreat formation, days of recollection, prayer groups, and other youth related spiritual exercises.

• Adult Ministry and Faith Formation — ministry to adults in the context of a parish setting. This would include RCIA, Adult Religious Education programs, Evangelization efforts on the part of a parish or cluster of parishes for the purpose of assisting the student in developing skills and confidence in articulating the faith.

The workshop component, held in conjunction with the practicum, will deal with a variety of social service agencies and other services offer by the Diocese of Cleveland. Consideration will be given to providing students opportunities to visit and learn from agencies and offices of the Diocese that students view as most helpful in preparing them for parish ministry. 1 Credit/Semester

FE 566 — Marriage Practicum
This practicum will assist the M.Div. candidate to begin the pastoral practice of marriage preparation, advocacy before the Marriage Tribunal, and the support of marriage preparation and enrichment programs. Parish-based experiences and supervision will be provided. The classroom component, held in conjunction with the practicum, will assist the student in some of the practical aspects of marriage preparation and annulment preparation. Such issues as wedding and annulment interviewing, outline of marriage appointments, moral issues related to marriage preparation and chancery procedures will be discussed. 1 Credit

FE 567 — Parish Liturgical Practicum
This practicum for ordained transitional deacons will center on supervised preaching of the Sunday homily, celebration of the sacraments in the parish setting and other aspects of the parish weekend ministry. The classroom component, held in conjunction with the course Liturgical Leadership (LIT 595), will allow students to practice presiding at various liturgical events such as Eucharist, baptisms, funerals and weddings. (Limited to priesthood candidates) 1 Credit

FE 569 — Practicum on Ecumenism (III Seminarians only)
The seminarian is exposed to the basic ecumenical theological principles of the Catholic Church as well as how the Church relates to other religions by overview lectures. In terms of Christianity, each member of the practicum is expected to experience the worship and have an interview with a minister of a Christian group. From that experience and additional reading, the seminarian prepares a report to fellow members of the practicum concerning the results and reflections on this community and its relationship to the Catholic Church. In addition, all the members of the practicum visit temples/synagogues of various world religions and have a dialogue with the religious leaders (rabbi, imam, priests). 1 Credit

FE 570 — Mission Immersion Experience
This practicum allows the M.Div. candidate to experience the ministry of the mission team in El Salvador. The student spends as many as three weeks immersed in the work of the various members of the mission team during a summer experience. The student is able to experience the culture and religious practice of the people of El Salvador while living and working full-time with the members of the mission team. A student must first apply and be accepted for the Immersion experience through the Chairperson of the Global Awareness Committee. Spanish language background is required, which can be attained through enrollment in language school immediately prior to the visit to El Salvador. A student can choose this elective after his first, second or third year in the seminary. FE credit will then be applied to either the first or second semester of a student’s Social & Ecumenical Ministry Placement. 1 Credit

FE 810 /820 — Ministry Field Experience (M.Div. Equivalency)
The Ministry Field Experience in the Path to M.Div. Equivalency provides the post-graduate student supervised experiences in the ministry setting in which advanced leadership skills may be fostered and the Church’s theological foundations for ministry may be actualized. 4/4 Credits (Pass/Fail Grade)
